Maple Reserves Trip Fendale

By HARVEY PETERS

Making a successful comeback after two losses in a row, the Birmingham reserve basketball team defeated the Fendale seconds last Friday night on the Baldwin floor, 40-35.

Both teams were missing shots in the first quarter but the Raliffitters took the lead. In a hot rally for points, the Maples broke loose for some nice dog shots along with popping the ball in from the free throw circle, enabling the Maroons to lead at the half 22-16.

In the previous game with Fendale, the Maples were defeated by one point, but hard play along with a fair defeat, allowed Birmingham to turn the tables and take the game.

Practice Debate Slated at Franklin Church Friday

A practice debate in which members of the Birmingham high school team will contest against each other will be given Friday afternoon at the Franklin community church.

Sandra Puls will act as student chairman with Don Adam and John Hickman opposing Mary Adams and Dudley Chapman who will debate the negative of the subject "Conscription of American Citizens". There will be no judges, but after the debate there will be a question and answer period. The team will eat dinner at the church after the debate.

CAPTAIN STANLEY PEPPERELL of the Birmingham Fire Department points out the fascinating points of this fire truck to members of the Torry school kindergarten during a visit last Thursday, as the class toured through the station. Principal Richard Featherstone said this visit was part of a program to let kindergarten children know about the important functions of the world they live in. Future tours are planned to other city departments. (Joe Wheeler Photo)

Barnum Junior High News

There is $114.94 in the Student Council treasury. There was a "Radio Assembly" presented by Lt. Timm Feb. 6.

The 9th grade tryouts for the operetta, "Words and Music" was held Monday, Feb. 4. The 8th grade tried out Tuesday and the 7th grade Wednesday.

The Barnum Craft Club resumed its activities under the direction of Miss Margaret Schrot assisted by Mrs. A. K. Hester. The club is interested in various handicrafts and at present textiles are being discussed. Last week the girls took a trip to Cranbrook Institute of Science to see the Guttenman exhibit of textiles.

THURSDAY, JAN. 31, there was an Honor Society meeting in room 107. The treasurer reported that the group now has $143.64. At this week's meeting, the qualifications of an Honor Society member were discussed.

Barnum's 8th grade team won their second game by defeating Holy Name School 37-28. Barnum was a little slow getting started, but managed to lead after half 12 to 4. In the second half, play was fast and rough. After the third quarter was over, Barnum started clicking with field goals and foul shots. The Trojans had trouble with Holy Name's star center, John Conroy.

Barnum regained their first place title by defeating Royal Oak in a very close game 26-24. In the second half, play was close and fast and late in the last quarter Royal Oak took a four point lead. Charles Frederickson and Guy Briggs saved the day when they scored two points. In the overtime, play was deadlocked for two minutes, then Phil Berger got the ball and scored from 15 feet out to win for Barnum.

High scorers were Andy Fairbanks and Charles Frederickson with six points each.

Last Thursday at their weekly meeting, the Barnum Press Club made plans for the March 7 dance, "The Shutterbug Shuffle". The dance will be held from 7:30 to 10:30 in the Barnum gym, for 8th and 9th graders only.

In second place are the Celtics with 3 wins, 1 loss, and high scorer is Phil Berger.

Mrs. Roma Clark's ninth grade homemaking class had a combination fashion show and tea Jan. 24 and mothers and teachers were invited. Skirts, blouses, jumpers, dresses, suits, pajamas, and night gowns were modeled by the girls who made them during the last semester. Monologues written by Helen Chanay, Marilyn Stralser, and Caroline Schaub were given by Beverly Noeb, Jacqueline Beko, Lois Geister and Barbara Neil.

Participation in the fashion show were Shirley Banwart, June Gravlia, Ann Hammond, Peggy Hemmingsway, Delores Jennings, Vera Koledarian, Beth Meyer, Barbara Neil, Carolyn Roberts, Charlotte Robertson, Sue Thornton, Jackie Beckley, Donna Kerpert and Marilyn Chrysler.

BARNUM'S 9TH GRADE team defeated Royal Oak 30 to 26 Jan. 30 at Royal Oak. This win continues Barnum's upward winning streak to six games and Barnum is first in the Little Oak League. Berkeley is next with 5 wins and 1 loss. Dick Sheldon was high point man with 11 points.

On Jan. 22, the ninth grade team defeated Berkeley 20-18. Bill Watkinson led scoring with eight points followed by Dick Sheldon and Don Fraser. The supporting cast will include Craig Whitlock, Terry Adlong, Dick Lee, Jim Mosley and Bob Stevenson. The sound by Don Fraser. The program will be broadcast at 1:45 p.m. over station WCAZ-Fourcast on Feb. 14.

The Barnum PTA presented the remainder of last year's budget, which had been earmarked for hobby activities, to the school library to purchase hobby books. Approximately 50 books about a variety of hobbies were selected. Book plates have been placed in each of the books to show that it was a gift of the 1950-51 PTA. Bill Story lettered the PTA.

There was a meeting of the Student Council candidates and their campaign managers Jan. 27. It was decided that each would be allowed five posters and one handkerchief. The person running for an office must maintain a "C" average in school studies. Each must also have a recommendation from his home room teacher.

On Monday, January 28, petitions went out to the candidates and these must be signed by more than 100 students before the candidates can run for an office.

The election will take place in the Barnum gym on Thursday, Feb. 13. Candidates for president are Don Fraser whose campaign manager is Jim Mosley; and Sid Fry whose campaign manager is Carol Rose. For vice-president are Sue McDonald, campaign manager, first vice-president, and Stan Ross, campaign manager, Diana Kathan, campaign manager, Trudy McKewen, campaign manager, Helen Chanay, treasurer, Carol Howlett, campaign manager, Nancy Brown and Kay Madena, campaign manager, Diana Kathan.

VAUGHAN SCHOOL NEWS

By NAN GORDON

Saturday, Feb. 9 has been set as the night of the popular B-Club carnival.

This year's carnival promises to be better than ever with hundreds of exciting games and prizes. Elmer Rhodes, in charge of arrangements, says that the special attractions will include an auction, plays presented by the speech class, the B-Club fun house refreshments.

The carnival will begin at 7 p.m. and all of the proceeds will go to the aid fund. The money from this fund goes to help pay doctor's expenses of students injured on the school grounds.

FRIDAY EVENING, the Bloomfield Hills Dads' club is holding a father and son banquet. A home cooked full-course dinner will be served in the school cafeteria, after which the fathers and sons will try their harmony with a few songs.

Stunts and games in which the winners will be awarded prizes are planned.
