An early spring wedding is planned.

Barnes-Howlett Vows Repeated In Santa Catalina Mountains

The Spanish adobe church of St. Philip's, in the hills of Arizona's Santa Catalina mountains, was the setting for the January 26th wedding of Marilyn Louise Howlett and Robert Arthur Barnes.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson Howlett of Chesterfield road, Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Donald Barnes of Hawthorne, Cal.

The wedding of the two University of Arizona students was small and informal, with only the immediate families and college friends present.

MRS. ROBERT A. BARNES
 A dinner for the families and bridal party followed the rites. The couple honeymooned in Arizona, and will make their home in Tucson until June.

THE BRIDE WORE a pastel blue dressmaker suit with white accessories and a tiny white flowered hat. Her bouquet was of white camellias and sweet peas.

Her attendant, Theresa Derby of New York city, wore a harmonizing shaded pastel suit and carried a bouquet of mixed field flowers.

Charles Guitart of Hawthorne, Cal., was the best man. Daniel Foss of Hawthorne seated the guests.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

Members of the Birmingham Girl Scout Board will attend the Southern Oakland Council's Board and Committee Training Conference at the Girl Scout office in Royal Oak on February 13. This meeting will acquaint the Birmingham Board with the policies of Southern Oakland Council, which organization Birmingham has recently joined.

There will be a regular Birmingham District Board Meeting on February 15 at the Community House.

TROOP 16—ADAMS SCHOOL
 To supplement their work on the Cooking Badge, the Girl Scouts of Troop 16 attended a cooking class at the Detroit Edison Company in Detroit. The girls cooked a complete meal in a model kitchen and were instructed in the use of some electrical appliances. They also enjoyed eating the lunch they had prepared.

TROOP 35—PIERCE SCHOOL
 At a meeting of January 28, the Brownies in this troop practiced table-setting and studied the art of setting a table. They also learned a new board game and later were served refreshments by Henry Henselberg. This troop will make Valentine presents for their mothers at the next meeting.

TROOP 52—PIERCE SCHOOL
 The Brownies of Troop 52 recently received their new uniforms. Mrs. Herbert Green attended their last meeting and taught the Girl Scout laws and promise. Bonnie Weeks was the hostess and served angel food cake.

TROOP 64—PIERCE SCHOOL
 On January 28, Brownie Troop 64 hiked to the Fire Department. The firemen gave them a cordial welcome and conducted an interesting tour through the firehouse. Before the hike, the Brownies met at Pierce School and were served refreshments by Mary Lou Cor-saut.

This group is making Valentine surprise packages to be sent to the children at Maybury Sanatorium.
