Oakland Hills Reception Follows Afternoon Rites

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. James H. O. Page received their guests at Oakland Hills Country Club following their afternoon nuptials at St. James Episcopal Church Saturday, February 2.

The bride is the former Mar-

MRS. JAMES H. O. PAGE
lyn Gorham Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burt Gould of Buckingham road. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Page came from their home in New Britain, Conn. to attend their son's wedding.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne heard the couple repeat their vows. The bride stood at the altar in a gown of midnight satin fashioned with a drop shoulder yoke, Peter Pan collar with tiny buttons down the front of the bodice, and long sleeves ending in points over the hands.

THE BRIDE'S full skirt ended in a circular train. A chastilly face panel covered her head, dropping down over each shoulder to join a long, full illusion veil. Her bouquet of white lilies and variegated ivy was centered with a white orchid.

Peggy Gould was her sister's maid of honor. Her strapless ballerina-length gown was of ivory brocaded satin, topped with a long-sleeved, tightly fitted jacket. A face veil completed her costume. She carried a bouquet of baby iris and acacia.

Mrs. John Carey Murdock of Columbia, Mo., and Mrs. Walter H. Teninga of Dolton, Ill. (the former Nancy Neumann of Birmingham), served as bridesmaids in gowns identical to that of the honor attendant, and carried matching bouquets.

Performing the duties of best man was George Cantrick of Toledo, Ohio. Paul Haeffner, Craig Edmunds and John E. McCrehan, Jr. of Grand Rapids.

Two Birmingham students were among those graduated from Hillsdale College at the midyear commencement the end of January. Bette B. Costello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Costello of Aspen road, received the degree of bachelor of arts in English.

John D. Slocum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Slocum of Henrietta street, received a bachelor of science degree in economics.

Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Page will make their home in La Grange, Ill. Following a motor trip to

A Valentine Turnabout—

from "GALS to GUYS"

Men heartily approve woman's newest invasion of a masculine prerogative... gifts from the gals are always welcome. Gifts from Young's are especially welcome!

VALENTINE'S DAY IS FEBRUARY 14

for the SPORTSMAN

- ✓ A SPORTS SHIRT with lots of pocket space is a good bet. But choose colors he likes.
- ✓ There are several choices in BELTS: Pigskin, alligator, cowhide—or striped ribbon.
- ✓ Regulation LOAFERS are still No. 1 sport shoe for sportsmen. They like wool HOSE too.

for the MAN-ABOUT-TOWN

- ✓ He'll look like a prince in one of the new narrower-brimmed HATS—but give him a gift certificate so that he may choose his own.
- ✓ A WHITE SHIRT in broadcloth or button-down Oxford cloth—and how about a Repp Striped TIE to go with it?
- ✓ SHOES are a good gift when they are French, Shriener and Urner shoes. Here again, a gift certificate will do the trick if you don't know his size.

for the COLLEGE MAN

- ✓ Pull-over SWEATERS alternate in popularity with WESKITS.
- ✓ A tweed JACKET will prove that he's hep.
- ✓ Flannel SLACKS are always fine in various shades of gray and in other colors, too.

for the HOMEBODY

- ✓ Especially for Valentine's day: Slumber PAJAMAS! with designs in the motif of Rip Van Winkle, Dog Tired and Night-owl.
- ✓ Mr. Work-by-the-fire will approve a lightweight wool ROBE which packs easily, compactly for business trips.
