

State Tax Program Will Be LWV Topic

Up to $60,730,000 in additional state revenues can be raised with out new taxes, according to a citizen's advisory group working with the legislature's interim tax and revenue study committee.

They why does Michigan have a deficit? What can be done about the state tax dilemma? These and other questions pertaining to state taxes will be discussed in a meeting of the League of Women Voters on Monday, Jan. 21 at 1:15 p.m. at the Community House.

The meeting will take place, this month, of the unit discussion groups. Its purpose is to brief LWV members on the taxation problem in preparation for a general meeting on Jan. 28 at the Community House at which John B. Martin, auditor-general, will speak. The public is invited to both meetings.

SPECIAL attention will be given to the sales tax diversion in the state tax structure. Mrs. Richard Van Dusen heads the LWV tax study committee, assisted by Mrs. William Brooks and Mrs. Robert Young. Mrs. Dayton Slater, Jr., will be the discussion leader.

Localities Perform With Detroit Women's Symphony

Birmingham will share the honors when the Detroit Women's Symphony presents its first concert of the season, January 25, at the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

Included in the orchestra are four local residents, Mrs. Eleanor (Chope) of 1723 Holland, Mrs. Nelson Fossenkemper, of 811 Vinewood, Joan Gasaway of 5545 Wendale Court, and Mrs. Robert Kutscher of 523 Merrill.

Localities attending the January 25 concert include Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bernat, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hendshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. T. Stanton, Mrs. Robert D. Elder, and Mrs. William H. Gardner.

THE DETROIT WOMEN'S Symphony Orchestra was introduced and made possible through the efforts of Michigan's oldest and largest music club, the Tuesday Musical of Detroit. It offers an opportunity for women musicians to join together in the recreation of the best symphonic literature.

Open to all women instrumentalists of sufficient proficiency, non-professional as well as professional, the organization is sustained not only by the Tuesday Musicals, but by other organizations and individuals who grant its desirable civic importance, and who take pride in the promotion of the enjoyment of music.

ONE OF the highlights of the program for January 25 will be the solo performance by guest artist Carroll Glenn, New York violinist.

Miss Glenn, who will perform the Concerto in D Minor by Beethoven, is the only member of all four major music offered in open competition in the United States by the Naumburg Foundation, the Town Hall Endowment, the National Federation of Music Clubs and the Schubert Memorial.

CONDUCTING the concert in this and subsequent performances is Victor Kolar, internationally famous as conductor, composer and teacher, who has conducted the Detroit Women's Symphony since its origin four years ago.
