Child Study Group Sponsors 8 Week Series in Berkley

Of interest to Birmingham parents is the announcement by the Berkley area Pre-school Child Study Group of an eight-week series of lectures and discussions. The first of these meetings will begin at eight o'clock Monday evening, February 4, in the cafeteria of the Berkley High School. Subsequent meetings will be held there for the next eight Mondays at the same time.

Registration will be taken at the door.

BELLE FARLEY MURRAY, lecturer and consultant on Family Relations with the University of Michigan Extension Service, will open the series.

Her topic will be "Living with Our Children." The speaker is widely acclaimed in her field, and will draw a vast store of knowledge practical to parents.

Busy Months Business Women Lie Ahead Request Yarn

This week our hats are off to the hard-working members of the Birmingham Business Women's Club. After working a full day at the office, these women fill their "idle" moments by knitting squares to be sewn into afghans for wounded veterans.

They have been engaged in this project since the start of World War I, and recently completed two of these lap-blankets for Christmas distribution.

Chief recipients are the Dearborn Veterans' Hospital, the Marine Hospital and Percy Jones Hospital in Battle Creek.

The MOMS club distributes the blankets, which are used by patients in wheelchairs.

YARN, IN LARGE and small quantities, is needed to continue the project. Anyone not knowing what to do with the remains of a ball of yarn is asked to drop it off at the Bessie Maxwell Shop, where it will be forwarded to the Business Women and turned into an afghan.

Ruth Shain Class Devotes Sessions To Asiatic Crisis

The Ruth Shain Class on International Relations has devoted its first two meetings of the new year to Life magazine's special issue of December 31, devoted to Asia.

This discussion of the philosophies, problems and possibilities of the Asiatic continent will continue at the January 22 meeting.

Mrs. John E. Duffy will finish her report on "The Rise of the Red Star." Mrs. George L. Hagman will discuss "The Mind of Asia" and Mrs. Donald Howarth will consider "The Decline of the Westerner."

The new headline book "Israel" will be interwoven into reports now on, at a test case in the formation of a new republic.

The general topic for February will be "The World's Racial Problems." Historical experiences which have molded the characters of present nations will be treated.

Mid-winter Show Open Through January 26th

The Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors will open their annual mid-winter exhibition in 302 L. Hudson Company's Fine Arts Galleries on Monday, January 14.

Oils, water colors, ceramics and sculpture will be on display through January 26.

MAYFAIR 6-2477

Women's Club Notes
The Walnut Lake Women's club held its monthly meeting at the West Bloomfield town hall Tuesday evening. Dance numbers were presented by Davene and Judy Karnes, Randy McKay and Lynn Grenger. Mrs. Mason Noble gave a reading.

The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. Parker Rockwell, president; Mrs. C. M. Heller, vice president; Mrs.

Mahlon Sutton, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Fletcher, secretary; Mrs. John Phelps, corresponding secretary and Mrs. David Martin, membership chairman. They will be installed at the February meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Kane, acting president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Roland Walton gave a report of the activities of the social service committee and read letters from recipients of Christmas baskets.

There will be a joint meeting of the old and new boards this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kane.

Audio-Visual Tests
Eye and ear tests will be given for school children next week. Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom, Mrs. William Nech, Mrs. Fred Morton, Mrs. William Unsworth, Mrs. Roland Walton, Mrs. Edward Sims and Mrs. Richard Bennett attended a meeting at the Hill school, Birmingham, Friday morning.

News Notes
The Garden group met at the home of Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Parker Rockwell and Mrs. John Parkins prepared the program on "Raising Orchids at Home." The birthdays of Mrs. A. M. Heinman and Mrs. Sundstrom were celebrated.

Mrs. Donald Irwin, Mrs. William Nech, Mrs. Maynard Mott, Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom and Mrs. Herman Fiebig attended the annual Fellowship supper given by the Ladies' Missionary society of the Lutheran Church on West Maple road.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jokela entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heinman at a dinner at their home Saturday evening.

Girl Scout Activities
The Brownies of Troop 25 had a tag ceremony at their meeting Monday. The leaders, Mrs. John Parkins and Mrs. Reginald Smith led outdoor games.

Troop 60, Intermediate Girl Scouts, met at the home of Mrs. Donald Irwin with their leader, Mrs. James Roberts. They worked on the cook badge. Margaret Roberts provided the nibbles.

Troop 58 met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Edson Stevens. Mrs. William Nech, assistant leader, and her daughter, Beverly, also attended the meeting. Penny Irwin furnished refreshments. They did some dramatics, a section with the hooters badge.

The Intermediate group is selling Girl Scout cookies to earn money for their troop.

Mrs. Lee D. Hanson, Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. James Roberts and Mrs. Edson Stevens attended the meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout council Friday morning.
