Lathrup PTA Maps Annual Carnival

The Lathrup PTA executive board met Thursday evening, Jan. 10, at the home of Mrs. David Anderson. Under discussion was the purchase of some type of safety device of the radio or blind-type type to be placed on a short distance from the school on the shoulder of the highway. Plans were also discussed for the annual carnival to be held April 26.

Wayne Professor Will Address Quanton PTA

Dr. George D. Barahal, associate professor at the Wayne University educational and clinical psychology department, will be commentator for the film to be shown at the Quanton PTA meeting on Thursday, Jan. 24 at 7:45 p.m. in the school gym. The commentator and the film, "Preface to a Life", are highly recommended by the Michigan Society for Mental Hygiene.

Torry PTA to Sponsor Carnival on Jan. 25

The PTA-sponsored "Torry Carnival" is planned for Jan. 25, beginning at 6 p.m., for a four-hour program. The featured item of entertainment will be the appearance of "Mikky" the clown. The "Torry" will include refreshments and booths. Mrs. Victor Story and Mrs. Milford Fuller will have charge of baked goods and party items; Mrs. L. E. Randall, Jr., Mrs. Harold P. Buerge, Mrs. H. E. Van Bussan, Mrs. A. P. Lister, Mrs. H. E. Cox, William Yohey and W. C. Prout, dining room.

Southfield Founders Day Meeting Features MSC Representative

Featured speaker at the annual Southfield founders PTA Founder Day dinner meeting, Tuesday, Feb. 12, will be Dr. Guy Hill, Michigan State College school and community representative. The session will get underway at 6:30 p.m. at the Southfield High school, 10 Miles and Lahser roads, and children from each school in the township will be represented on the program. Dinner tickets were allocated according to the number of members in local PTA groups and there is a total limit of 200 at $2 per ticket.

News copy submitted early

Dr. Hill will discuss "The Role of the Citizens in Education." Program following the dinner is open to anyone interested.
