

Bride-elect's Parties Fill Jan.-Feb. Calendar

Helen Peters Wed To Keith Ege in Morning Ceremony

A thirty day leave from the groom's Army duties in Alaska made possible the morning nuptials of Helen Peters and Keith Ege at the Shrine of the Little Flower, Saturday-morning, January 12.

The Rev. Adrian performed the service. Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Peters of Royal Oak. Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Ege of Bensenville avenue, Birmingham.

For her wedding the bride chose a long satin gown, carrying into a train. The long sleeves were finished with points over the hands.

January is traditionally an eventful month, but for bride-elect Pat Daly and her fiancé, John Jennings, the calendar becomes more crowded with each passing day.

On Saturday, January 12, Mrs. James O'Grady and her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Douglas hosted the young couple and their friends at cocktails at the Douglas home and then at the Fox and Hounds for dinner.

Sunday, January 13, was the date selected by Mrs. Alan R. Hopkins and her mother, Mrs. W. Carlston Scott, for their breakfast and shower.

ON WEDNESDAY, January 23, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Dardin will entertain at a dinner party in the Lake Orion home.

Mrs. W. Sydney Gilbreath and her daughter, Mrs. James Chandler, will honor the bride-to-be at a tea and kitchen shower Saturday, January 26.

That evening the scene of the festivities shift to the Russell Nutter home in Grosse Pointe where Pat and John will be the honorees at a bar shower.

February will continue in the same vein, with a tea and miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond on Saturday, February 9.

Jane Dadds has scheduled cocktails in her Willow Lane home for February 10.

PAT'S FAIRFAX ROAD home will be the scene of the Spinster Dinner on Wednesday evening, February 13.

John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jennings of Ann Arbor, will host the rehearsal dinner on February 15.

The nuptials will take place the afternoon of February 16th at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Rebekahs Install New Officer Slate At Jan. 23 Rites

Rebekah chapter 445 Pride of Oakland County will join the Royal Oak sisters in a double installation on Wednesday evening, January 23. The Royal Oak sisters will preside at the installation.

The services will begin at eight o'clock at the Community House.

Appointive officers, to be installed include Mrs. Leah McPhail, outside guard; Mrs. Agathe Rathka, inside guard; and Mrs. Alta Loeding, wardens.

Mrs. Robertine Davidson will take over the role of conductress. Mrs. Alice Brandon is the chaplain, and Mrs. Bailey will continue as pianist.

Mrs. Ina Nixon is to be installed as right support to the vice grand. The left support is to be Mrs. Florence Brown.

The right support to the noble grand is Mrs. Adelaide Hoover, with Mrs. Mildred Smith as left support.

Dostal-Moynahan Rites At Gesu Church Saturday

Two Birmingham families were joined when Neil Covert Dostal claimed Mary Louise Moynahan for his bride in Gesu Church, Detroit, Saturday, January 12.

Mary Louise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. B. Moynahan of Bonnie Brier road. The groom is the son of Mrs. Joseph Dostal of Overhill road, and the late Mr. Dostal.

The Rev. Joseph Lane S. J. heard the young couple repeat their vows and was the celebrant of the nuptial Mass which followed.

For the ten o'clock ceremony the bride wore a floor length gown of ivory satin, accented with chintilly lace edging the oval neckline. A rounded train completed her gown.

The bride's ivory satin cap was edged in seed pearls and held her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a fleur d'amour bouquet with a pale purple orchid.

MRS. ROBERT HAEFNER was her sister's matron of honor. Her floor length gown of pale green satin was topped with a matching cape, and set off by a halo of yellow daffodils. The spring motif carried over into her bouquet which was also composed of yellow daffodils.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Irving Oakes, Joyce Thomas, Kathy Moynahan, Mary Mahon and Mary Ann Mason wore gowns of emerald green satin. Their flowers were also yellow daffodils.

Russell K. Dostal was his brother's best man. The bride's brother-in-law, Robert Haefer, Howard Keating, twins Helmut and Fred Aplers of Shaker Heights, Ohio, and James Jeffries of Mansfield, Ohio, performed the ushers' duties.

AT THE RECEPTION at the Detroit Athletic Club following the ceremony, Mrs. Moynahan received her guests in a gown of wheat satin faulle with gold accessories. A brown orchid formed her corsage.

The groom's mother was in grey taffeta with matching accessories and a yellow orchid.

Mrs. Turner Heads Hills Garden Club

The Epping Lane home of Mrs. Fred Sanders was the scene of much activity Monday, January 7, when the Bloomfield Hills branch of the National Farm and Garden Club Association held their annual meeting and election.

At the tea which followed, members congratulated Mrs. Edward P. Turner on her being named to the presidency for the coming year.

Assisting her will be the first and second vice-presidents, Mrs. Leroy Vandever and Mrs. J. Hawley Otis. The incoming treasurer will be Mrs. Fred C. Jeynes. The duties of recording secretary will be assumed by Mrs. Pat M. Thomas. Mrs. Horace P. Shaw is the new corresponding secretary.
