

Newlyweds Honeymoon in South After Jan. 12 Vows

A three-week trip to Washington and Virginia was in store for newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Herzberg following their Saturday evening wedding in the First Methodist Church.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Edward W. Colby of Hillcrest road and the late Dr. George A. Ritchie, was given in marriage by Mr. Colby.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Herzberg of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE REPEATED her vows in a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a small Peter Pan collar, fitted bodice and very full skirt, appliqued with panels of Chantilly lace.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a modified Dutch cap of matching lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Carrying cascade bouquets of deep red "Happiness" roses were maid of honor, Virginia Merritt of Royal Oak and attendants Barbara Lindblom of Auburn, Indiana, Mrs. Robert Youngblood of Battle Creek and Judith Krause.

They and junior bridesmaid, Jan Lehmann were identical gowns of emerald green tulle cut with shawl collars and full skirts.

Their half hats were formed of matching velvet and held face veils.

The groom's nephew, David Westerby, was ring bearer.

Performing the duties of best man was Robert Youngblood, Ushers Joseph Fox, Delor Westerby, Frank Colby and Carl Lindblom of Auburn, Indiana, completed the wedding party.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests present at the rites included Mrs. William J. Cummings, Mrs. Waldo Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Terry Brown and Marcia Tapert, who came down from Sault Ste. Marie.

Making the trip from Auburn, Indiana, were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindblom, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Stokes of Lansing were also present.

When the young couple left the reception which followed at the Birmingham Country Club, the new Mrs. Herzberg wore a beige wool suit with matching accessories.

They will reside in Birmingham on their return.
