GIRL SCOUTS

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE
TROOP 21

The girls in Troop 21 have completed work on their "Rambler" badges, the last requirement being the trimming of a "Christmas" tree for birds.

In December they sang carols at St. Elizabeth's Home for the Aged, as well as completing several toys which were taken to the Elizabeth Kenny Polio Clinic near Pontiac. Some of the members plan to make cookies for the children in the clinic.

MRS. FLOSSIE BERNATH of Crooks road announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen Marie, to Robert D. Brin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brin of Rochester. The bride-elect is a 1950 graduate of Clawson High School, and her fiancé graduated from Rochester High School. Wedding plans are being made for the 15th of March.

WITH THE Collegians

The campus at Albion college was the scene of a discussion, "Youth and Narcotics", on January 16. Sylvia Morris, senior at Albion and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morris of Suffield road, served on the arrangement committee. Max Cornell, also a senior, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cornell of Townsend road, served as chairman of the hospitality committee.

BROWNIE TROOP 53

Brownie Troop 53 of the Bloomfield Village School opened its third term in December. Fritzie Harris is the new president. Ann Abbott is the vice-president and scribe, Linda Rostock is secretary, and Susie Plasko is the new treasurer.

During the month the troop prepared paper mache vases in which they planted narcissus bulbs, and wrapped in hand-colored paper.

Among the hostesses for the month were Sara Bartholomew and Sharon Kelly.

On December 17 they presented their Christmas program, after which coffee, cake and punch were served.

At the annual meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council, held January 11, each committee reported an active year and an increase in growth. Mrs. Ross Wagner announced that there are 35 Brownie troops and 31 Intermediate troops now registered, with one Brownie troop and two Intermediate troops in the process of registering.

WING LAKE SCHOOL

This troop of Intermediate Girl Scouts recently had a snow party on the grounds surrounding the school. One of their members, Scribes Paul Johnson and Tally Davis report that the entire group was planning to attend the Father and Daughter Banquet.

THE ENGAGEMENT OF Sue Ann Moloney to Hanns Pierre Winnen has been made known by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Clark Moloney of Arlington drive. Sue is a student of Bennington College. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Winnen of Redondo Beach, California, is a graduate of the University of Detroit.

There is a total of 917 girls registered and 341 adults registered in the process of registering. When the registration period is over, the record-breaking figure of 1,284 persons will make up Birmingham Girl Scouts.

Last year, over 5,000 Girl Scout Calendars were sold to residents of Birmingham. Mrs. Paul Wilson, Finance Chairman, anticipates an equally good public support when Girl Scout Cookies are sold in the annual sale which begins this week.

MRS. GEORGE HOKE, Program Chairman, announced that the Father and Daughter Banquet has been advanced to February this year. Square Dancing, as usual, will follow dinner. The committee feels that this is a better season for such vigorous entertainment. Intermediate Girl Scouts are urged to make their reservations with their leaders as the date has been set for February 9 at 6:30 p.m. in the Community House.

AT A FAMILY dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Clark, the betrothal of Joan Gresh and Roy E. Aulph, Jr., was revealed. Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gresh of Berkeley. Roy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Aulph of Chapin street. Mr. and Mrs. Clark are his grandparents. Joan is a graduate of St. Mary's of Royal Oak, while Roy's school was Baldwin High. A fall wedding date will be announced later.

THE FOLLOWING training courses for leaders were announced by Mrs. William deBeaumont: February 6, Fly-Up training for fourth grade Brownie leaders in the Scout Room at the Community House from 1:30 to 3 p.m. February 6, Intermediate workshop at the Girl Scout cabin from 10:00 to 4:00 p.m. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Robert Reinhart by February 4.
