

Aladdin and his Genie coming to B'ham

A new version of the old Persian Tale told by Scheherazade in "Arabian Nights" will come to Birmingham Friday, January 25. The play, "Aladdin and his Wonderful Lamp," will be presented by the Wayne University Group.

This is the second in the 1951-52 Children's Theatre Series, sponsored for the past eight years by the Birmingham branch of the American Association of Universities.

The story of the Genie of the Lamp who obeyed Aladdin, and brought him great fortune, was told by Scheherazade during the thousand and one nights when she was keeping her sultan amused.

She was such a good storyteller that he forgot his bad habit of killing one woman every day!

Children who do not hold season tickets may obtain single admissions at the box office the day of the performance. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. C. W. Blenman.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY meeting of the Children's Theatre Group will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kegel, 968 Madison, at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, January 23.

The play-reading committee will give its report on three plays. From this group of plays the members will choose one to be presented by the workshop during the 1952-53 season.

DIAL TELEPHONE SERVICE FOR

BIG BEAVER

BEGINS AT 10 P.M. FRIDAY

BIG BEAVER'S new $320,000 dial telephone system goes into operation at 10 P.M. this Friday, January 18. Starting then...

- BIG BEAVER customers will dial direct to BIRMINGHAM AND ROCHESTER telephones as well as telephones in their own exchange.
- BIRMINGHAM AND ROCHESTER customers will dial direct to BIG BEAVER telephones.

Just dial the telephone number you want to reach. For example, to call MU library 9-1046 in Big Beaver: dial M, U, 9 and 1, 0, 4, 6.

BUT DON'T FORGET... all Big Beaver telephone numbers will be changed when dial service starts. So be sure to look up the number in your new telephone directory before dialing. The new Big Beaver numbers will consist of the new central office name, MU lerry, and five figures.

SPECIAL NOTE TO BIG BEAVER CUSTOMERS:

Complete instructions on how to use the new dial telephone are in a special booklet called "How to Use the Dial Telephone," being sent to all Big Beaver customers. We know you will like dial service. It's fast and easy to use.

Money for expansion and improvement like this has to come from people willing to invest in the telephone business. To attract their money, the telephone business must pay a fair return for the use of their money. So... It's good for you and your town to have Michigan Bell make a fair profit.
