Localite Wed in Ohio Rites Friday Evening, December 28

Dale E. Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sutherland of Creston road, claimed Mary Waddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Waddell of St. Clairsville, Ohio, for his bride at a ceremony Friday, December 28, in the home of the bride's parents in St. Clairsville.

The rites were held at 7:30 in the evening, with the Rev. Arnold Er Kuhl hearing the vows. The bride's gown was of white pussy willow satin trimmed in chantilly lace from her mother's wedding dress. The gown had a fitted bodice, long tight sleeves, and a full skirt with side panels of lace.

Her fingertip veil of illusion lace fell from a band of satin and she carried a cascade of white roses. Mrs. James C. Donkin of Shadyside, Ohio, was the matron of honor in an emerald green gown of satin and net. A colonial bouquet of red carnations and white poinsettias were her flowers.

The bride's niece, Diane Donkin, performed the duties of flower girl in a red gown, and carried a similar colonial bouquet. Irvin George Sutherland was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were the bride's brother, Frank S. Waddell and her brother-in-law, James C. Donkin. The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of navy lace.

over silk, and a corsage of yellow and red carnations. Mrs. Sutherland was in a gown of coplan blue crepe, highlighted by a corsage of pink roses.

A RECEPTION immediately followed the ceremony in the Waddell home.

The newlyweds will be at home in Columbus, Ohio, after January 2.

Musicale Starts New Year With Three Guest Artists

Three well-known Detroit musicians will present the Birmingham Musicales' first program for 1952 on Thursday, January 10.

Mrs. John Abbott will be chairman of the day's program, which will begin at two o'clock at the Community House.

Guest artists will be soprano Virginia Person, oboist Lare Wardrop, and pianist Frank Murch.

Miss Person has appeared widely in radio and as a soloist in Detroit and elsewhere in Michigan. A graduate of the University of Michigan and a faculty member of the Detroit Conservatory of Music, she has sung with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and has been soloist with the Little Symphony.

Miss Person appeared as soloist on the George Stark Television Show and at the dedication of the Detroit Historical Museum. She has also sung at the Fair Ground Concert Series.

LARE WARDROP has been a member of the Detroit Symphony for a number of years, and has made many appearances as soloist and in chamber music programs, both on radio and television. He is also instructor at the University of Michigan School of Music.

Frank Murch has appeared locally as pianist, accompanist and conductor. He was soloist with the Detroit Symphony, has made many appearances as accompanist in Detroit and other Michigan cities, and is conductor of the Detroit Harmonic Society Choruses. He is conductor of the Detroit Conservatory Orchestra, and has toured as accompanist for singers and instrumentalists in the United States and Canada.

Mrs. Murch is a graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music and is a fellowship holder at Juilliard Graduate School, New York.

MRS. EARL BARTHOLOMEW and her husband, Edward G. Barry, are hosts for the event.

The tea committee will be headed by Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels.

Social Briefs

Miss Marjorie Johnson of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Johnson of Los Angeles were the holiday guests of the Johnsons' son, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

Robert Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Harper of Pennington road, motored to Florida with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Highland Park. They will be gone for two weeks, staying in various places of interest.

Colt and Mrs. Walter Ott and their daughter, Karen Nell, of Washington, D.C., spent the holidays in Birmingham, and then journeyed to New Orleans where they attended the Sugar Bowl game.

Bill Clark and his cousin, Karen Nell Ott, entertained a group of their young friends at a Christmas party Sunday afternoon, December 23. The party was held at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of Willow Lane. Santa Claus arrived with a sack of toys, and was welcomed by children, their parents and grandparents.

Although her marriage to Larry Shepherd will not take place until March 22, Mary Peden was the guest of honor at a spinsters' dinner given by her honor attendant, Martha Mather, in her home on Waddington road. Guests at the fête, held last Friday night, were nine members of a "pot-luck" group which has been in existence since high-school days. The dinner was held at this early date because of conflicting college schedules in the spring.
