Fair Plans Formed

The fair committee and chairman will meet at the school Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. to plan for the fair Feb. 29.

Mrs. William Unsworth will be in charge of the fishpond, assisted by Mrs. Janet Jones. Mrs. William Nock will have the pop booth, assisted by James Roberts, Vincent Alain, William Nock and John Gibson. Mrs. Donald Irwin will be in charge of the popcorn booth.

There will be a clown with balloons to show the people the way to the various booths.

Teen-Hi Bake Sale

Saturday at 1 o'clock at the Walnut Lake grocery store the Teen-Hi club will hold its first bake sale. They will use the receipts to continue their activities for the rest of the season.

Women's Club to Install

The Walnut Lake Women's club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Phelps Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Music pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Phelps will present the program. The new officers will be installed by Mrs. Roland Walton, a past president of the club.

Home Is Sold

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton have sold their home on Middlebelt road to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Nickle of Northville. The Mortons and their three daughters, Jill, Jan and Holly will move to Baldwin street, Birmingham, Monday until they build another house here at the lake.

Of Local Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell and their daughters, Barbara and Beverly attended a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hammes in Detroit Friday evening. Mrs. Rockwell's nephew, James, has just completed his "boot" training with the Marine Corps and is to go to Camp Lejeune, N.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens attended the Coterie dance at the Birmingham Community House Friday evening.

Mrs. Melvin Jorits has gone to Sarasota, Fla., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bertram. She has left the children at home for two weeks.

Edson Stevens, Jr., celebrated his eighth birthday this week with a luncheon and movie party on Saturday afternoon.

Cubs and Boy Scouts

The newly formed Boy Scout troop is doing so well that more assistants are needed. They are planning a Father and Son banquet soon.

The Cub Scouts held their monthly pack meeting at the school Tuesday evening. Duane Hoffman won the prize for the best airplane. Phil Emrich led the boys in a game and Paul Spurluck showed three movies, one of them on airplanes.

Paul Heller and Howard Benway received the Lion badge.

The committee met to make plans for next month. February is anniversary month and the pack will have a Birthday dinner Feb. 26. During the month the boys will make the invitations, place cards and centerpiece for the party.

Mrs. Richard King and Mrs. C. E. Thomson have resigned as Den mothers.

Mrs. C. M. Heller and her den went to the fire station in Birmingham during their meeting time this week.

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts and Brownies held their monthly singing meeting at the school Monday. They played several singing games and sang Girl Scout camp songs. Ross Latham, Jill Morton and Lynn Eisen served the "nibbles". Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. William Nock and Mrs. Edson Stevens led the singing.

All Girl Scout cookie orders must be in by Monday. Many of the girls are planning to attend the Father and Daughter banquet to be held at the Community House, Feb. 9.

Annual Shrine Circus Now in Progress at State Fair Coliseum

The 45th annual Shrine Circus opened a 14 day engagement Monday, Jan. 28, at the State Fair Coliseum. Performances are offered twice daily, at 2 and 8 p.m. Furnishing entertainment are some of the top circus clowns of the country including Felix Adler. Headline international acrobatic, aerial and animal acts also top the program.

Reserved seat tickets are available at the Shrine Club and Masonic Temple in Detroit.
