newly installed treasurer, and Mrs. Willie Mae Dunn will be the chaplain.

The sergeant-at-arms' task will be performed by Mrs. Robert Schmale.

Trustees for the coming year are Mrs. Ambert Peterson, Mrs. John Kelley and Mrs. Walter Benecor.

Entertainment and refreshments followed the installation rites.

THE AUXILIARY will hold their next meeting at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, February 6, at the Brookside School, Cranbrook home of Mrs. Walter Leibold.

Mrs. Stanley Pepperell will be in charge of the evening's entertainment and refreshments.

Assisting will be co-hostesses Mrs. Robert Appell, Mrs. Walter Benecor and Mrs. Willie Mae Dunn.

New Catholic Parish Women Form Societies

By DOROTHY KELLY

BEVERLY HILLS—Officers of the altar society of the new Catholic parish, Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, have been completing the organization of their respective posts.

The president, Mrs. Joseph Cucchi, and vice-president and chairman of the Guilds, Mrs. Thomas G. Kavanagh, set boundaries to form nine groups. Each of the nine have met within the past two weeks. They have chosen officers, decided the date of their monthly meetings, organized committees and in several cases have already started projects.

The parish has been divided into four zones. Some zones included as many as 34 women and it was necessary to make more than one guild.

Zone I was split in two, forming St. Patrick and St. Jude guilds. St. Patrick women will meet the second Monday each month with Mrs. Mary King, chairman. St. Jude members chose Mrs. Henry H. Marsh chairman and will meet the second Wednesday of the month.

THE ALTAR SOCIETY will meet on Thursday evening, Feb. 7, at 8 o'clock in the Birmingham Community house. Most of the officers were transferred from the Altar society of Holy Name.

Mrs. Joseph Cucchi, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Kavanagh, second vice president; Mrs. J. G. Hicks, secretary; Mrs. Robert Leary and Mrs. Robert Leary, treasurer. Mrs. J. J. Frederickson. The St. Joseph Guild will be hostess for this meeting.
