

Charles Williams Goes to Nebraska To Claim Bride

The wedding of Miss Joan Marilyn Graham of Ann Arbor to Charles Ellison Williams of Birmingham was witnessed by 125 guests on July 10. The ceremony took place in the Methodist church of Elgin, Neb., with the Rev. Lester Anderson reading the rites.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. Graham of Elgin, chose a bluish pink ballerina length gown of marquisette. The long pointed sleeves, bodice and side panels were of lace, the illusion neckline bordered with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Her attendants were Miss Kathryn Graham, Omaha, as maid of honor, who wore an aqua net ballerina length gown. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Richard Huffman of Elgin, wore yellow net, while the candlelighter, Miss Miriam Caldwell of Albion, Neb., wore tomato red net. Each carried a colonial bouquet.

ARTHUR WILLIAMS, brother of the groom, was the best man with Richard Huffman and Dale Johnson serving as ushers.

Following a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a northern Michigan trip, for which Mrs. Williams selected a black linen ensemble with a corsage of red carnations. They will be at home after July 21, at 202 West William in Ann Arbor.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Williams of 511 Merrill.

Wears Sister's Gown In Saturday Wedding

Only members of the immediate families attended the ceremony at St. Hugo of the Hills church Saturday morning when Miss Janet Alberta Nelson became the bride of Ralph Edward Schumaker. The double ring rites were read by the Rev. Francis T. Staeb before a candlelighted altar.

The bride wore her sister's gown of white tulle, fashioned with a portrait neckline edged with small leaves. The full skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was caught in a dutch cap which repeated the trim used on the gown. Her Stephanotis bouquet was centered with a single white orchid.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. James Hoffmann of Wilmington, Del., who wore a gown of champagne nylon net. Ballerina length and carried a bouquet of painted daisies in shades of pink. Petals of the flowers were used to make a band for her hair.

maker selected a pink linen suit, white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet for traveling.

They will make their home in Accoquan, Va., while Corp. Schumaker remains stationed at Ft. Belvoir, moving to St. Louis this winter.

Mrs. Schumaker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Albert Nelson of Lake Angelus. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward William Schumaker of St. Louis, Mo.
