Couple Honeymoon In East After Saturday Nuptials

Motoring through Cape Cod, with a visit to New York planned before returning, are Dr. and Mrs. Hillier Locke Baker, Jr. The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. William H. Mead in Christ Church Cranbrook late Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Baker is the former Marian Jane Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James Dunelle Dyer of Graefield road. The silhouette of the bride's white organza gown was accented by a hoop, and she wore a Swiss embroidered Spencer sacket with an Elizabethan collar.

Her fingertip veil was held by a small cap and she carried a crescent of daisies.

MRS. J. W. RONNER was her sister's matron of honor. Her halter-length gown of mint green organza featured a bateau neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Donned a navy shantung suit with a polka-dot collar and knife-pleated cuffs. Her accessories were of velvet and she wore a corsage of daisies.

After the first of August the couple will make their home in Rochester, Minn., where Dr. Baker is with the Mayo clinic.

THE GROOM, son of Dr. and Mrs. Hillier Locke Baker of Chicago, asked Walther Meyer of Medford, Wis., to perform the services of best man.

Guests were seated by Vee C. Yasulu of Chicago, LeMoine D. Skitt, Jr., of Skokie, Ill., and the bride's brother, Pfc. John James R. Dyer, Jr., USMC, now stationed at Newport, R.I.

After the nuptials, the wedding party received guests at Red Run Golf Club. Mrs. Dyer was in a floor-length gown of toast colored Chantilly lace over rose-beige taffeta. Her small matching horsehair hat was studded with pearls, and she pinned a green orchid to her bag.

Mrs. Baker chose a floor-length costume of aqua crepe with a crystal beaded bodice. She wore a blue fowered hat and an orchid corsage.

FOR TRAVELING the bride donned a navy shantung suit with a polka-dot collar and knife-pleated cuffs. Her accessories were of velvet and she wore a corsage of daisies.

Completing the bridal attendants were the groom's sister, Martin Salmon of Chicago, and Carolyn Lee of Royal Oak. All carried colonial arrangements of white and blue.
