Players Hope For All-Star Berths

Intermediate League players will be playing their hearts out this week to gain recognition from coaches, managers and umpires who are to select the league's all star team for the Little World series play-offs.

League officials will have to make their selections known this week to have the team ready for the district tournament at Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 8.

Winner of the district finals will advance to the Little World series at Trenton, N. J.

In last week's play the Rockets won a pair to keep their record clean and assure themselves of at least a tie for the second half of the season. They defeated the Harvesters 4-3 with Dan Corralis going the route for the winner. They topped the Bel Airs later in the week 10-4.

Larry Milford of the Chiefs and Larry Hower of the Harvesters posted one-hitters for their teams. Milford helped the Chiefs overwhelm the Bel Airs 15-1 while Hower hurled the Harvesters to a 6-0 shutout over the Chiefs.
