CAMPFIRES WILL BURN this summer at the Woodland Day Camp site in Southfield Township for Girl Scouts and Brownies. Shown getting things in order for the August 5 opening are (left to right) Mary Merritt and Sharon Volkoff. Two sessions will be held in August with activities planned from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Mrs. Charles Hawley is Day Camp chairman.

Helps Establish
New Paper Firm

Jack Bode, 16161 Elizabeth, Beverly Hills, Detroit packaging engineer, has been named vice president of the newly formed John H. Feaver Paper company which will operate in Philadelphia, Pa.
Bode, part owner of the firm, began his career as a research engineer with the Johnson Wax company.
Prior to entering the armed services in 1942, he spent eight years with advertising agencies in Milwaukee and Chicago, going into the packaging business after the war.
He will remain in Beverly Hills in his new field, handling sales of packaging materials throughout the Detroit area.

MRS. CHARLES B. RENFREW

Charles B. Renfrew Weds In Grosse Pointe Service

In Christ Church of Grosse Pointe, Susan Leora Wheelock became the bride of Charles Byron Renfrew. The pair exchanged vows before the Rev. J. Clement Kolb and the Rev. Harold Towne at five o'clock Saturday afternoon.
Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell K. Wheelock of Grosse Pointe, while Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Renfrew of Henley drive, Birmingham.
Also at the altar were the bride's sister Cynthia, the maid of honor; and attendants Elizabeth Wakefield of Boston, Sally Voss of Portland, Ore., Elizabeth Wald, Jane Kuhlmann, Toni Needs of Cleveland, Carroll Grylls and the groom's sister, Robin Renfrew.
Charles was attended by his brother, William F. Renfrew, his best man; and ushers David Allen of Chicago, Samuel Tucker of Philadelphia, Bruce Robb of Kansas City, Robert Warner, Theodore Herbst and Bruce Renfrew.
THE BRIDE'S mouseline de soie gown featured a bodice appliqued with lace and pearls. She wore a short train and an appliqued lace cap holding a fingertip-length veil.
The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore white pique dresses with short full skirts. Their small hats were of matching material.
For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Wheelock selected blue silk with Alencon lace. Her flowered hat was of the same shade, and she wore an orchid corsage.
Mrs. Renfrew was in a Chantilly lace dress of an ashes of roses shade. Her greenleaf hat was accented by her green orchid corsage.
A RECEPTION followed the rites at the Cleverly road home of the bride's parents. For traveling to Colorado, the bride selected a gray silk suit with white pique accessories.
After July 15 the newlyweds will reside at Ft. Sill, Okla.
