Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Prosser entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Feighner and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cowan with a pot-luck picnic at their home on Cooper avenue Saturday evening. The guests, who meet regularly, were friends at Albion college where Mrs. Prosser and Mrs. Cowan were both members of Kappa Delta sorority.

Baby Parade

Dennis Charles Nichols led the parade of new baby boys to Olivia avenue. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Nichols.

Gregory René Jacques, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Jacques of the same street, was the next to arrive. His eight-year-old brother, Teddy, and two-year-old sister, Jacque, are eager to meet him.

Lawrence Harold Schneider, Jr., is the most recent arrival among the new sons on this street. Judge and Mrs. Shemanske of Detroit are his maternal grandparents.

Luncheon

Mrs. William Ceder, of Aberdovey road, entertained at a luncheon in her home last Thursday. Her daughters, Candy and Chris greeted the relatives as they arrived on this street. Judge Ceder's mother, Mrs. W. H. L. Everard, Elmwood avenue; two aunts, Mrs. H. G. Stevens and Mrs. L. H. Hughes, Pleasant Ridge and a cousin, Mrs. Carl F. Binder and two children Lucy and Stevie, Ann Arbor. Mrs. William Everard and son, Billie of Detroit missed the party because they left for their cabin near Wolverine, Mich. earlier than planned.

Bridal Attendants Wear White For Vows

At an all-white wedding at the First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon Margaret H. Kohr became the bride of Thomas G. Lightner of Moundsville, West Virginia.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Kohr of Wimbledon drive, wore white organza with Swiss floral embroidery highlighting the jewel neckline, cap sleeves, and chapel train.

Matching elbow mitts and an illusion veil held by a close-fitting cap covered with lace embroidery and edged with pearls completed her costume.

The bride held a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and ivy.

IN A WHITE ballerina-length gown of crepe embroidered organza was maid of honor Jane Kohr. Her dress was styled with a halter top and Spencer jacket sashed with salmon pink. She wore brief white lace mitts, and a half-circle headpiece of salmon pink gladioli buds and ivy was duplicated in her bouquet.

Carrying out the white theme were the bridal attendants. In similar gowns with matching pink sashes were Mrs. Thurman W. Holloway of Royal Oak, Mary Palmer of Detroit, Mrs. Robert L. Livesey, and Mrs. Edwin Shelby III of Flint.

Donald G. Lightner of Birmingham was his brother's best man. Both are sons of Mrs. Donald B. Lightner of Painesville, Ohio, and the late Mr. Lightner.

County Bankers Elect John Farr to Office

John Farr of the installment loan department, Birmingham National bank, recently was elected treasurer of the Oakland county chapter, American Institute of Banking.

Chapter membership from the 16 commercial banks of the county last year reached a total of 367, making it the third largest chapter in the state.

The AIB was organized to make available specialized courses in banking subjects for employees. Six of these classes were held last year in which 141 bank employees took part.
