

Mrs. J. C. Roberts Elected Michigan Garden Club Head

Climaxing last week's three-day silver anniversary convention of the Michigan branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association for Birmingham members—and hostesses—was the election of local Mrs. J. C. Roberts to the presidency of the state group.

Mrs. Roberts is editor of Home Acres, the national organization's magazine.

Also named to the 1952-53 slate at the Community House meeting were Mrs. Lyle Slaybough of Battle Creek, first vice-president; Mrs. Donald D. James of Bloomfield Hills, second vice-president; and Clarence E. Maguire, recording secretary.

Mrs. Frank Webb of Birmingham will perform the duties of corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Cash Talbot, named "Miss Garden" at the silver anniversary luncheon

FOLLOWING LUNCHEON, a tour of gardens conducted by the Birmingham committee was scheduled, with a tea at the new Birmingham High School completing the three-day session.

Among those opening their gardens were Mrs. Hobart Andreae, Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. Albert A. Clark, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. Louis S. Morse, Jr., S. V. Norton, Mrs. C. B. Obermeyer, Mrs. Martin B. Rice, Mrs. D. R. Strigley, Mrs. Max Tunneliffe, Mrs. E. P. Turner and Mrs. David Van Dusen.

Other highlights of the convention were a trip to Haven Hill, a dinner at Oakland Hills featuring speaker Louis Bromfield, and a dramatization of the organization's history by Mrs. Lloyd Linton.

Alpha Phi Final Meet

Mrs. Paul Reimenschneider, Jr. of Marlborough road will host Alpha Phi alumnae's final meeting of the season. She will be assisted by Mrs. H. P. Barber, Jr.

Jungle River Trip Will Be Described To Business Women

Mrs. F. G. Garrison of Franklin will verbally take members of the Birmingham Business Women's Club on a trip up Columbia's Magdalena river when she addresses the group's June meeting.

Her talk will follow 6:30 p.m. dinner this evening at the Community House.

Mrs. Garrison was a resident of South America for a number of years. Her river trip took her through the jungle, the deltas and mountains from Barranquilla to Bogota.
