Third and Fourth grade news—Class president is Fritz Harris and vice president is Bill Purdy. The third grade brownies' trip to Oakland Hills was cancelled because of rain Thursday. Bill Purdy's cousin, Jim Purdy, is visiting our class.

We made pictures of homes around the world.

FRANKLIN SCHOOL STUDENTS

Lynne McWilliams and Jimmy Andean survey with pride the mud size maps the children have worked on recently as part of a historical project. The students presented a program for their parents last week depicting the lives of people in foreign countries, illustrating their speech topics with the maps.

Honor Students Receive Awards At Senior Dinner

During the program following the recent senior dinner, Ross A. Wagner, principal, announced the various honor awards earned by members of the 1952 graduating class.

Named for high scholarship and distinguished work on publications were Dick Emery, Carol Hoebard, Suzanne Jones and Carol Marean.

RECEIVING THE DETROIT Free Press certificate of merit in debate are Mary Adams, Dudley Chapman, Jack Goodman and Sandra Puls.

Other awards announced included an honorary subscription to Readers' Digest to valedictorian Martha Brown; the Hi-Twelve vocational scholarship awarded to Jim Hall; national foreign award for the best in public speaking, Dudley Chapman.

Recognition was given to Evelyn Stanek for her art work on the state retailing film strip and to Carol Marean, first girl from Birmingham to receive the honor given to girls among 56 recipients in this area.

Bruce Wallace won the Detroit alumni Rensselaer polytechnic institute medal for scholarship in mathematics and science. Elizabeth Kirtz and Charlotte Schwimmer were winners of the Crowley Milner company regional scholarship awards, each receiving a gold key.

High School Site Of Education Film

An educational film company has chosen Birmingham high school to be filmed June 15, 19, and 20. Students will participate in a movie comparing modern American and nineteenth century European education. Three New York actors will arrive to play the principal, the teacher and the student. The film will be shown to the public for ten dollars a day.

Entitled "Pretenses" Heritage the movie will be shown all over the country by Jam Handy, Inc. Students participating will be Carol Goldstein, Roger Miller, Doug Colwell, Roger Glick, Bob Laskin, Peter Glick, Bob Laskin, Bruce Carlisle, Tom Talbot, Jim Barr, Jim Weldy, Paula McDonald, Meridille Knights, John Wilson, Sheila Traynor, Janet Kasten, Lois Moore.

Barbara Aikens, Janet Webster, Fulton, Barbara Biggs, Eugene Smith, Chuck Weir, Doug Stroud and Beverly Nordstrom.

Birmingham Hi-Society

By JUDITH ANDERSON

OUTLAND STABLES was the scene of much merriment when PHS gave its annual hayride last Saturday. The school met June 7. Peter Poliver won first place in the dash and broad jump, Richard Eggert won first in the shot put and Chuck Erlanson took fourth place in the long jump.

The school welcomes Michael Hall, formerly of the Ten-Mile school in Farmington.

Wednesday, June 19, there will be a track and field meet on the school playground at 4 p.m. At 6:30 p.m. the parents are invited to join the children for a basket picnic supper.

Sixth grade news—The following officers were elected for the week: Secretary, Carol Green; reporter, Bill Cartwright; books, Edward Broudfeld, Emily Hauran; plants and animals, Howard Flint; sheriff, Jeff Crawford, Terry Mahaffy.

PHILLIP ANDREAE brought in some toads and Scott Detroit brought in a salamander. We also have two toads, three salamanders, nine peepers (frogs).

All the sixth graders are writing reports on Latin America.

For the past two weeks we didn't have time for much baseball and averages as we were busy practicing for the Junior Olympics. We came in second in the relay race—Hank Bartholomew and Jeff Crawford running for our room with Peter Palmer and Richard Eggert running for the fifth grade room.

One day the boys played baseball with the girls. The boys batted left handed or the right hand alone. We also wrote a report on "Why We Liked School."

TIARA'S NEW OFFICERS

For the year beginning in September are president, Shirley Lanning; vice president, Judy Ritter; recording secretary, Sue Hadian; corresponding secretary, Paula McDonald; treasurer, Meridille Knights; interclub council member, Sheila Traynor; historian, Mary Jane Delahanty; parliamentarian, Mary Fulton.

THE ASSEMBLY CLUB will accept the seniors including three honoraries, nine juniors, six sophomores, and four freshmen who will plan the weekly school programs next year. Interested candidates will be voted on soon.

Gael Greig is planning an open house. Fifteen of the girls will end their day at a slumber party at Peggy Giesey's.

Activities Crowd Senior's Program

A senior schedule is always a hectic one and this year, but typical, with dinners and house parties planned in addition to the usual formalities.

Graduation events sponsored by the school include: June 9—Ship day, a busy trip to the beach, June 13—Swing out, featuring a variety of novelty acts; June 16—Baccalaureate in the Baldwin gymnasium; June 18—Annual big five dance at Rice and his band; June 19—Commencement in the new high school gymnasium.

Maple Nine Edges Cranbrook For Win

Birmingham high school completed a brilliant baseball season, June 3, by defeating Cranbrook in a tense 1-0 pitcher's duel.

Gordon Mutch who hurled his first game for the Maples this year struck out eight and allowed only four hits. Bill Soter also pitched creditably for the Cranes, allowing only three hits and striking out six.

Not only did Mutch pitch a winning game but he collected two of the Maples' hits and scored the winning run.

A strike by Mutch in the fourth inning, coupled with two passed balls and a stolen base, scored the only run.

The Maples avenged an earlier loss to the Cranes.

Maple Nine Edges Cranbrook For Win

The Cranbrook school varsity baseball team ended its 19 game schedule by defeating Hazel Park High school in a double-header on Sat., June 7th.

The Maples won the first game by a score of 4 to 3 under the superb pitching of Bob Newey who won his eighth victory of the season.

Cranbrook continued on its winning streak in the second game by taking over 7 to 5 under the pitching of Marty Goldman, Dick Saragusa and Harry Eck. Don Strickland led the team with three hits ending up the season with a .406 batting average. Mark Suter, John Hatch, and Harry Lomason ended up the season with batting over .300.

The end of this year marks the end of an era in Cranbrook baseball. John Hatch and John Eckson, the second base combination have been playing varsity ball for four years and this season was their last. Cranbrook ended their season with 12 wins and 7 losses.
