FRANKLYN McDONALD ROBERT WHITLATCH

TWO BIRMINGHAM men are among the six new trustees elected to serve the Sister Kenny Foundation of Michigan for the coming year. They are Franklyn McDonald, 420 Suffield, owner and president of McDonald Trailers Sales, Inc., and Robert H. Whitlatch, 707 Lakewood, assistant to the president of the S. S. Kresge Co. A third Birmingham man, Destor Horton, 1369 Westwood, has been reelected to the board of directors. The annual report of the Foundation showed 11,729 individual treatments for polio were given at the Sister Kenny hospital during 1951.

Three Meets Set For Kindergarten At Pierce School

The annual Pierce school kindergarten round-up will be offered at three different times this month. The round-ups are held each year to acquaint parents with school practices and familiarize the youngsters with their surroundings. Meetings of school officials and parents are scheduled for June 12 at 1:30 p.m. and two sessions on June 13 at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. School Principal Malcolm Ferguson, Speech Correctionist Harriet Kopp, School Nurse Frances Curtin, and Teachers Marjory Bow, Harriet Merritt and Francis Brown will be on hand to meet parents with members of the school Parent-Teachers association. Kindergarten rooms will be opened and staffed with room mothers so that parents can attend with their children. A record enrollment of kindergartners is expected.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
MILT BERZ, local airport owner: "I can't see why Detroit doesn't want to go out farther than 12 Mile and Dequindre for an airport. That location really is too populated for the big ships that would be using it. A few miles farther north and there is really wide open countryside. And the extra five minutes required to reach it would not be much."

Bridal Shower
Bride-elect Miss Patzy Luhrs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Luhrs of Meadowbrook Way, was honored at a shower at the home of Mrs. Viva Eckles on Coral Gables. Mrs. Clayton Detmers was co-hostess. About 20 guests were present. Miss Luhrs will become the bride of Donald Dupuy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Dupuy of Pleasant Ridge on June 21 at the Drayton avenue Presbyterian church, Ferndale.
