Clay Cogswell Claims Bride In New England

In the Unitarian church of Sharon, Mass., Clay Cogswell of New York City claimed Marilyn Ann Jerauld, daughter of Clifford L. Jerauld of Sharon and the late Mrs. Jerauld, for his bride.

The groom, a former resident of Birmingham, is the son of William Cogswell of New York City and Mrs. James Moon of Southfield road, Birmingham.

Jean McDonald of Sharon was the maid of honor at the June 19 nuptials. Bridesmaids were Janet Bishop of Sharon and the groom's sister, Susanne Moon of Birmingham.

The bride's gown was of blush pink slipper satin with a cathedral train and a seed pearl collar. She wore her mother's full-length wedding veil of French illusion lace with a rose-pointe lace Juliet cap. The bride carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

THE THREE ATTENDANTS were dressed in blue shantung and nylon gowns, and carried baskets of blue bachelor buttons and yellow nasturtium.

James Branch of Olean, N.Y. was the best man. Ushers included Robert Foley of Point-Cl Woods, Conn., Myles Dollinger of Forest Hills, N.Y., Anthony Frank of Holywell, Calif., and the bride's brother, Robert Jerauld of Sharon.

Mrs. Moon was gowned in grey and wore a corsage of spring flowers.

After a reception at the Bell House, the couple left on a motor trip through New York state. They will make their home in Birmingham.

Children's Theatre Group Lists Board At Annual Picnic

Mixing business with fun, the AAUW sponsored Birmingham Children's Theatre named board members for the coming year at the group's annual picnic at the Orchard Lake Country club yesterday.

Mrs. Norman B. Gustafson and Mrs. Stewart Edgerton will head the group as co-chairmen.

Others named were Mrs. James A. Severy, secretary; Mrs. Richard Clemon, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph M. Fox, business manager; Mrs. Walter Patton, publicity; Mrs. F. C. Moriarty, program; Mrs. William J. Lambert, Jr., social membership; and Mrs. John Holliester, school representative.

Mrs. Gilbert Gove, director of the play "Circus Day", announced final plans for the October presentation of the play.

Children Mix Fun and Clay At Outdoor Pottery Class

Believing that summer can become tedious to active youngsters when they have nothing constructive to do, Mrs. A. K. Toepfer of Knox street, has inaugurated a series of outdoor pottery classes.

Youngsters may be found bending intently over a Mexican type wheel from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. Mondays and Wednesday throughout the summer months.

UNDER MRS. TOEPPER'S guidance, they will follow the age-old potter's art, the coil and slab methods, and the application of glazes. Weaving classes are also on Mrs. Toepfer's agenda. Fridays will be set aside for novice students.

All this activity will be held outside whenever possible. However, when summer showers do appear on the horizon, the classes will pick up and move a short distance to a big barn which houses the horses of the General Store Delivery Wagon, when "Birmingham was young" adds Mrs. Toepfer.

Mrs. Toepfer has been active on Adult Education committees at Adams school as well as planning craft classes at the Community House.

All of these fine adjectives fall far short of adequately describing this this very special home.

If you're looking for the best, you need look no further. Excellent planning, quality in workmanship and equipment and a fine appreciation of color in decorating combine to make this a wonderful home.

There's a charming view on the other side of the house, looking over a valley and stream. Five large Thermopane windows afford delightful views from every room on the main floor.

You'll find a lovely master bedroom suite on the first floor. Two more bedrooms and two fine baths are on the second floor, plus space to finish another large bedroom and bath.

Attractive, expensive carpets and drapes and two fine refrigerators are included. Shown gladly by appointment only.
