Handmade display will be used in seminar at Alma College

African Village
For Alma Seminar
No greater devotee of the dime store counters has existed during the past few months than Mrs. F. R. Woolfenden, 543 Vinewood. Objects of her search were hair "rats", swatches of material, pipe cleaners and other assorted objects.
The results were seen at the annual meeting of the Michigan Synodical Society, the state society of Presbyterians women, at Alma College June 17-19. State president is Mrs. L. Irving Woolson of Glangarry road.
ONE OF THE highlights of the seminar display at the meeting was Mrs. Woolfenden's "African Village", entirely handmade by Mrs. Woolfenden at intervals over a period of time.
An Mrs. Woolfenden is a hobbyist silvermith, all the bracelets and earrings adorning the natives are of sterling. The chapel and six hats are thatched by hand with raffia.
Next year Mrs. Woolfenden plans to use the village in connection with her annual book review for "Presbyterian Church" women. The title of the coming season's book is "African Heritage."
Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—all the society editor about them.
