

SUBURBAN SEEN

BY KAY REED

WHEN WILLIAM A. McHATTIE of Westwood drive unpacked his bags after a six-week European trip, two battered and torn foreign cigarettes emerged with other more resplendent souvenirs.

No ordinary cigarettes were these, he explained. During a personal interview with King Gustav of Sweden, one of the court aides offered McHattie a cigarette from His Majesty's own supply and gave him two more to take with him. However, the Swedish monarch, like many a celebrity who indorses a specific brand, has never smoked.

OVERHEARD ON THE Pine Lake golf course: A young matron muttering that she is giving up the game because her 14-year-old son hits the ball longer and straighter than she. The last straw!

LOCAL CHRIST CHILD society members are devoting a day each month to the Sarah Fisher Children's home on Inkerster road. The volunteer program was nearly sabotaged at the start by an epidemic of measles which invaded the nursery.

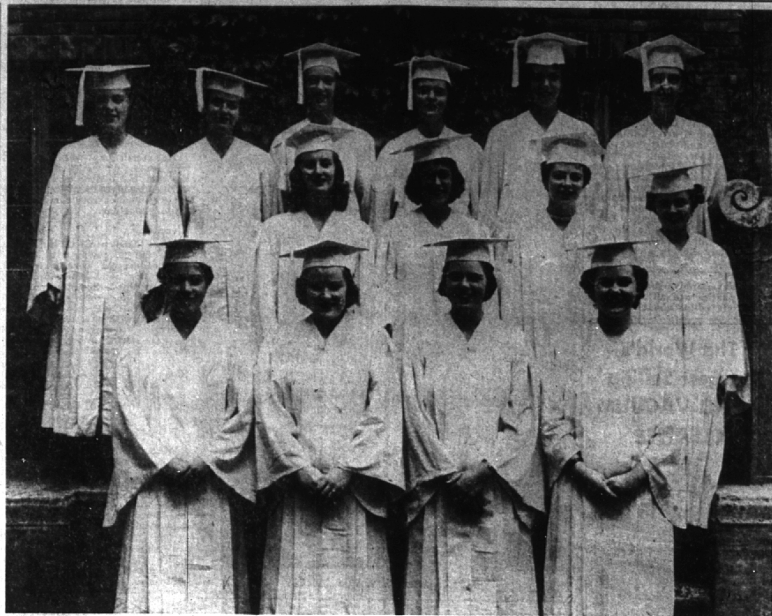

THE CURRENT FLARE-UP of contract trouble in the club dining-rooms and kitchens throughout the area has had a number of strange outlets. At a recent dinner party no matter what guests ordered—they received scallops.

A PICTURE OF distraction was the gentleman whose wife sent him to the Greyhound station to pick up her new cleaning woman. Apparently she had overlooked any means of identification, for the nearly frantic husband had to brave the tide which came off each bus to query the arrivals as to their destinations.

THE MAINTENANCE FUND CAMPAIGN currently being undertaken in behalf of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is striking a responsive chord in the Bloomfield-Birmingham area, reports Mrs. Leonard T. Lewis, area chairman. More than 200 individual contributions to the orchestra have been raised by the group headed by Mrs. Lewis, assisted by Mrs. John E. Eckenrode and Mrs. Robert L. Graham.

A NEW NOVEL was launched amid much festivity at an open house hosted by the J. C. Roberts on Yarmouth road Sunday. Honor guest was Jeanne Wylie of Grosse Pointe, author of "Face to Face" whose publication date is coming up shortly.

Mrs. Wylie, a member of the Detroit Society of Women Writers, is a winner of the O. Henry Memorial Collection award, and has shared first place honors in the Atlantic Monthly short story contest.

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL will hold commencement exercises at three o'clock Saturday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook. Dr. John R. Everett of Hollins College, Virginia, will address the graduates. Local students who will receive diplomas include (top row) Bloomfield Hills residents Barbara Barker, Martha Browning, Patsy Hoey, Ann Coulter, Toni Gossett and

Gardening Board To Gather Monday

Board members of the Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will meet at the Arlington road home of their new president, Mrs. Frank Webb, at 12:30 p.m. Monday.

Committee chairmen for the coming year have been announced by the group. Mrs. W. S. Howell will head the program committee; Mrs. Robert Mason, social; Mrs. Harvey Bushnell, educational; Mrs. William Lovrie, conservation; Mrs. J. R. Alexander; home gardeners; and Mrs. C. V. Di Pietro, membership.

Mrs. D. B. Strieley has been named publicity chairman; Mrs. Frank Howlett, roadside improvement; Mrs. G. A. Wehndel, finance; Mrs. R. K. Evans, marketing; Mrs. L. A. Hyland, international cooperation; and Mrs. A. A. Appleford, revisions.

NAMED TO SPECIAL committee posts were Mrs. Carl Nepper, hospitality; Mrs. Lloyd Linton, bulletin; Mrs. Lloyd Southard, garden center; Mrs. George Goodwin, flower show chairman; Mrs. Seth Slawson, exhibits; Mrs. Kenneth Duff, ways and means; Mrs. A. R. Forster, junior gardening; and Mrs. C. B. McCormick, speakers bureau.

Elms-Peters Nuptials In Garden Scene

Upon receiving his degree at Albion College, Gale Elms returned to Birmingham for his wedding to Ann Peters, another Albion student. The couple repeated their vows in the garden of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Elms of Westchase Way at one o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Thurston of Pontiac read the Methodist service.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peters of Pontiac, was groomed in white embroidered organza with a short veil. Her bouquet was formed from white roses, buds and orange blossoms with white orchid in the center. The bride wore white organza trimmed in green, and carried yellow roses.

A RECEPTION at the Birmingham Country Club followed the nuptials. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Colasimiro, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Tedoff and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Zonis, all of New York City.

For a wedding trip to the upper peninsula, the bride changed to a navy shantung suit. The couple will return to Birmingham in several weeks to make their home.

Round of Parties Precede Nuptials Of Margaret Kohr

With the date of her nuptials little more than a week away, bride-elect Margaret H. Kohr is entering the final round of pre-wedding festivities.

Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Kohr of Wimbledon drive, will meet Thomas G. Lightner, son of Mrs. Donald B. Lightner of Painesville, Ohio, at the altar of the First Presbyterian Church at 4:30 in the afternoon of June 28.

AMONG THOSE entertaining prior to the fast-approaching nuptials was Mrs. Thomas R. Navin whose luncheon at the Detroit Boat Club was an event of June 17.

Saturday noon Mrs. Malcolm Lowther will receive luncheon guests at the Detroit home of her mother, Mrs. D. C. Young. Mrs. Carl W. Neumann will open her Henley drive home on June 26 for a dessert shower in honor of Margaret. The groom has asked his ushers and Mr. Kohr to the Fox and Hounds for the June 26th bachelor dinner.

THE REHEARSAL DINNER will be held the evening of June 27 at the Southlawn drive home of the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Lightner.

At noon on the wedding day, Mrs. Carl W. Neumann will host a luncheon for the wedding party and relatives.

A son, Craig Jeffery, was born May 17 to LT. AND MRS. ROBERT MALLORY of Pasadena, Texas.

A daughter, Susan Lorraine, was born June 15 to MR. AND MRS. JOHN M. AVERILL of Manchester road. Mrs. Averill is the former Shirley Chambers of Royal Oak.
