MRS. AUSTIN EDWARD JONES

Double-Ring Vows By Candlelight

Candlelight filled Christ Church Cranbrook at eight o'clock Friday evening when guests arrived for the nuptials of Marion Nevill Kirk and Austin Edward Jones.

Performing the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Robert DeWitt, assisted by the Rev. Arnold Runkle.

The bride, in a floor-length gown of white moire taffeta with a small sweep of a train, was escorted to the altar by her father, Arthur Nevill Kirk of West Lincoln road. Her gown featured a square neckline and short sleeves with a wide collar and cuffs.

Her small cap was appliqued with leaves of white moire. The cap and the bodice of her gown were embroidered with pearls. The bride's bouquet was composed of white gladiolus.

IN FLOOR-LENGTH a aqua moire taffeta gown with matching headresses and a corsage of honor, Mrs. John James Bickford, and attendants Suzanne and Sylvia Jones, the groom's sisters, accenting features were leaves embroidered with pearls on the caps, and wide berthes on the bodices of the gowns. White gladiolus formed the bouquets.

Richard Lewis Cook came from Summit, N.J., to be the best man. Guests were seated by Cleveland Walcutt, Donald Frank of Korman, Ill., Allen Evers of Lawrenceburg, Ind., and Rodney Smith, Jr.

MRS. KIRK wore a floor-length gown of ash green crepe with white accessories, and a corsage of easterlaid daisies. Mrs. Jones was in a floor-length gown of rose crepe with powder blue accessories. Her corsage was also of easterlaid daisies.

The Christ Church dining hall was the scene of the reception which followed the vows. Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Cleveland Walcutt, Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Frank C. Smith to preside at the tea table.

TO LEAVE ON a motor trip through New England, the bride chose a yellow suit with matching accessories and a corsage of easterlaid daisies.

The couple will return to Birmingham to spend the summer. In the fall they will make their home at Lafayette, Ind., where the groom will complete his studies at Purdue University.

Georgian Bay Wedding Trip Awaits Saturday Nuptials

Off to a month's honeymoon in the Georgian Bay area of Canada are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Demosthenes James Booth whose wedding was an event of last Saturday evening.

The bride, the former Beverly Joy Brennan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred John Brennan of Floyd street. She and the groom, son of Mrs. A. D. Booth of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., met at the altar of St. James Episcopal Church to repeat their vows before the Rev. Harold E. Towne.

The bride's white Chantilly lace gown was fitted over satin and nylon net. Her jacket was cut with long pointing sleeves over her hands. Three ruffles accented her satin petticoat.

Three tapering layers of silk net fell from the bride's pearl studded Juliet cap, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy, centered with a rose corsage.

ATTENDING HER SISTER was Susan Marie Brennan, maid of honor, in a gown of orchid taffeta, covered with white eyelid and nylon net. She and the conventionally gowned bridesmaids wore net caps and gloves.

Forming the bridal procession were the groom's sister, Mary Ann Booth of Sault Ste. Marie; Diane DeBiss; the bride's roommate at the University of Michigan, Elizabeth Moncrieff; and Barbara Stephens. All carried white nosegays, with the honor maid's in an orchid shade.

Robert M. Hunt of Chicago, Ill., was the best man. The bride's father, A. J. Brennan, James Hattenlocker of Clarkston, Richard Beardsley and Anthony Georgias seated the guests.

MRS. BRENNEN ATTENDED her daughter's nuptials in a floor-length gown of turquoise Chantilly lace over taffeta, with matching hat and shoes, and toast accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Booth's gown was fashioned with a navy velvet bodice and a navy net skirt over taffeta. Her soft pink hat matched her accessories, and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Soloist at the ceremony was Mary Ann Dunworth of Ironton, Ohio, a University of Michigan classmate of the bride.

AMONG THOSE attending the reception in the church parlors were Constance Booth of Sault Ste. Marie; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sams of Hamilton, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. John Gore and their daughters Helen, Elizabeth and Louise of Chardon, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cochados of Inshpeming, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Eberhard of Grand Rapids.

When the young couple left on their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a navy gabardine suit piped in red and white, with white gloves, navy accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The groom, a June graduate of the University of Michigan, may enter military service in the near future.
