

Bride Carries White Roses To Altar in Afternoon Vows

White nylon trimmed with lilies of the valley was chosen by Elizabeth Mackay for her Saturday afternoon nuptials to Frank D. Saylor III. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lisle K. Mackay of Detroit, carried a bouquet of white roses and larkspur.

The couple stood at the altar of the Calvin United Presbyterian Church of Detroit to repeat their wedding vows before the Rev. Ernest W. Duna. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Saylor, Jr., of Canterbury Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride's cousin, Joan Boyd, was her maid of honor. She and bridesmaids Jane Humbel, Roberta Henderson, and Joanne Fry of Saginaw were in pale yellow net over taffeta costumes, with taffeta jackets.

Robert Mackay attended the groom as best man. Ushers were James Saylor, Cadet R. E. Myers and Roy Goodwill.

TOAST LACE OVER taffeta formed Mrs. Mackay's costume. Yellow roses were her corsage. The shade of Mrs. Saylor's gown was aquamarine, accented with a corsage of pink roses.

After a reception in the church parlors, the wedding party, families and out-of-town guests left for a bridal supper at the American Turners on East Jefferson avenue.

The bride and groom are both June graduates of Michigan State College. The new Mrs. Saylor was affiliated with Delta Zeta and her husband was a member of Delta Upsilon. He is a newly-commissioned second lieutenant in the Quartermaster's Corps.

Issette-Schueler Wedding Service Saturday Evening

Saturday, June 14, was chosen by Ruth Schueler and Armand Issette III for their candlelight nuptials in the Gethsemane Lutheran Church of Detroit.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schueler of Detroit, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Issette of Beverly Hills, repeated their vows at 6:30 Saturday evening before the Rev. F. A. Hertzwig.

The bridal gown was fashioned of white nylon tulle and lace with long sleeves and a train. A Juliet cap caught the bride's fingertip veil, and she carried a bouquet of white snapdragons and white orchids.

IN BLUSH PINK was the bride's sister Margaret, her maid of honor. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses and green snapdragons.

Another sister, Marilyn, the groom's sister Lynn Issette, and Naomi Hengstabeck were the other attendants. Their mint green gowns were of nylon tulle and they carried bouquets tied with green streamers.

James Bowley was the best man. William Hengstabeck and William Donnelly, fellow medical students of the groom, were the ushers.

Mrs. Schueler attended her daughter's nuptials in a floor-length gown of blue lace. Mrs. Issette was in a floor-length gown of blue lace. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow roses.

A BUFFET SUPPER at the Redford Country Club followed the service.

When the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Northern Michigan the bride was wearing a beige silk shantung suit and a white orchid.

They will return in several weeks to an apartment in Detroit. In the fall they will resume studies at Wayne University where the groom is a junior in medical school and the bride is completing her senior year in the college of education.
