Students Receive Degrees

It's June again and commencement time on campuses throughout the country. From all compass points came word of Birmingham students receiving their sheepskins and completing their undergraduate activities.

At the Northampton, Mass., campus of Smith College, Eloise Day, Elizabeth Ann Lind and Mary Alice Stringer will be candidates for the degree of bachelor of arts at the college's 74th commencement exercises on June 9. Sir Oliver Franks, British ambassador to the United States, will deliver the address to the graduates.

Miss Day, an English major, attended Kingswood School and graduated from Bradford Senior College before entering Smith. In her senior year she was production head of WCSR, the Smith College radio station. She was also a member of the vocational council and the United Republics Club on campus.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Vance H. Day, of 1430 Henrietta street.

MISS LIND, a major in child study and education, is also a Kingswood graduate. She was vice-president of the senior class, a member of the electoral board for the student government officers and head of the Smiffenpoos, an informal singing group.

Miss Lind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Lind, of 590 Mahagan road, was advertising manager for the Current, student newspaper, and a member of the Smith choir in her freshman and sophomore years. She has been on the Dean's list since her junior year.

Miss Stringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Stringer, 1066 Glenhurst drive, a graduate of Baldwin High School. A history major, she has been managing editor of Sigma, Smith College associated News, another student publication. In the past, she has been reporter, news editor and copy editor of the paper.

Miss Stringer was head of the Rally Day Program this year, and a member of the script committee for the senior Rally Day show.

YALE UNIVERSITY will also hold commencement on June 9. President A. Whitney Griswold will deliver the baccalaureate address for the 251st exercises. Receiving his bachelor of arts degree will be Milton F. Mallender II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. Mallender, 430 Aspen road.

AN EVENT of June 2 was the commencement of Duke University, which took place on the Durham, N.C., campus.

Among the graduates were Les Ballinger Durham, Jr. and Ann Elizabeth Lundberg, both receiving bachelor of arts degrees.

Miss Lundberg is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Lundberg, 31710 Glencoe drive, Durham in the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Durham, 32410 Norchester street.

ALSO MARKING centennial commencement was Purdue University. Diplomas were awarded on the Lafayette, Ind., campus Sunday, June 1.

Donning mortarboards were Roland H. Watson, Peter A. Abbrecht, Gaylord J. Gano, Norman L. Goddard, and Patricia J. Sprague.

Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Watson, 648 West Frank road, received the degree of master of science in industrial engineering.

Abbrecht, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Abbrecht, 823 Saffield road, received the degree of bachelor of science in chemical engineering.

Gano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gano, 355 Linden road, and Goddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmans A. Goddard, 31515 Bellvue street, received degrees of bachelor of science in mechanical engineering.

Miss Sprague, 520 Puritan road, received the degree of bachelor of science in home economics.

A JUNE 6 graduate of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, Houghton, will be Robert C. Stanley, son of Mrs.

Bachelor of arts degrees will be conferred on Mary Ann Hatos, 2719 East Maple road, education; Lawrence G. Westerby, 1308 Smith, liberal arts; Leonard M. Paine, 26781 Berg road, liberal arts; and Alexander D. Parnie, 269 Wimbledon drive, liberal arts.

Graduate school students receiving the degree of master of education include Jack N. Gerard, 1579 Washington, and Majel C. Brezette, 200 Park.

AMONG THE 111 graduates of Marygrove College who received degrees at the college's 42nd annual commencement exercises Wednesday afternoon, June 4, were Shirley Genord and Donna Fleming.

Miss Genord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Genord, 17870 Locherle, received a bachelor of arts degree with a minor in psychology. She also received a Michigan state provisional certificate for teaching.

During her senior year, Miss Genord was elected to Iota Gamma Alpha, Marygrove honor society, and was president of the Pieta Club for psychology majors.

Miss Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fleming, 5175 Franklin road, received a degree of bachelor of arts. An English major, she was a member of the Marvogue College Chorus and the Meynellian club.

DELIVERING THE commencement address at the June 7 commencement of Mercy College, will be the Rev. Edmund D. Berard of the Catholic University of America.

Diploma graduates from the M. Carmel hospital unit of the Mercy School of Nursing will be Joan Patricia Bielman, 31655 Southfield, and Jan Veronica Boufford, 16239 Madoline.

Puppeteers Wind Up Season With Dinner Installation

A dinner and installation of officers on Tuesday, June 10, will climax a busy year for members of the Birmingham Puppeteers. The group will assemble at the home of Mrs. Frank Mosher at 6:30 p.m. and then proceed to the Fox and Hounds for dinner.

Installation of officers will take place later in the evening at the home of Mrs. George Coleman.

RESUMING THE chairman's office for the second year will be Mrs. Charles Bigelow, who is assisted by Mrs. Merrill Anderson, co-chairman.

The secretary-treasurer post will be held by Mrs. Donald Howarth, with Mrs. Russell B. Stephens handling publicity. Mrs. Michael Remondino will be in charge of production with Mrs. Frank Mosher as construction chief.

Activities of the "birthday party" stage will be headed by Mrs. Rodkey Craighead.

THE SEASON'S final production of the play "Gina and the Talking Horse" was given May 27 at the Whittier School, Pontiac.

Guild Head Honored At June 4 Luncheon

On Wednesday afternoon, June 4, board members of the Holy Name Altar Society honored Mrs. George Zink at a luncheon preceding their meeting.

The group gathered at the McHegan road home of Mrs. John F. Danek. Mrs. Zink, chairman of St. Mary's Guild of the Holy Society, is moving to Indiana in the near future.

Localite In Will-O-Way Opening

When "Handle With Care," an original play co-authored by William Merrill, director Will-O-Way Summer Theater, opens Detroit's street-theater season at June 10, it will mark the fourth season of treading the boards at the West Long Lake road stage for localite Loree Carmick.

Loree, off-stage a Birmingham house wife and mother, first appeared at Will-O-Way in 1948. Theatergoers will remember her portrayal of "Nurse Cary" in last season's production, "Mr. Peabody and the Mermals."

A native of St. Paul, Minn., Loree attended Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., where she majored in dramatics. She did theater work in Waco, Texas, and later sang with the chorus of the Washington Opera Company while studying law at George Washington University.

"HANDLE WITH CARE" will be her sixth show at Will-O-Way. In addition to her dramatic interests, Loree sings with the Birmingham Musical and the St. James Choir.
