

State President to Address B'ham AAUW at Picnic Meet

The Birmingham AAUW's next meeting will be combined with a picnic picnic when the group convenes at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Irving MacKenzie at 12:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 11. Board members will meet at 11:30, followed by the general meeting.

Mrs. Edward McCaul, program chairman, will introduce guest speaker, Mrs. Arthur L. Brandon, who will discuss "AAUW: Prospect and Retrospect".

MRS. BRANDON, president of the Michigan State division of the American Association of University Women, has been active in AAUW affairs for many years. She has served as president for three state boards of the organization before coming to Michigan. A resident of Ann Arbor where her husband is on the executive staff of the University of Michigan, Mrs. Brandon has been a director of the Ann Arbor branch of the AAUW, and for two years was international relations chairman of the state division prior to her election to the state presidency in May of 1951.

Mrs. Brandon is also active in other organizations, having served as a member of the executive directors of the Ann Arbor Community Chest, the board of the YWCA, and the Council of Church Women. She is a member of the Faculty Women's Club and is an adviser of one of the women's student groups on campus.

MRS. BRANDON will go to Washington, D. C. later in June where as chairman of the program committee, she will preside over the Biennial Conference of state presidents of AAUW.

The June 11 program will close with reports by members who attended the state regional conference which took place in Grand Rapids in April.

Book Sale Will Mark 25th Year

The new board members for the AAUW annual Book Sale were entertained at luncheon recently by chairman Mrs. Charles Blunt. Conversation was chiefly occupied by plans for the Silver Anniversary Sale in the fall.

October 19-25 are the dates selected. Members will work through the summer collecting books, monthly magazines, patterns, sheet music, records, toys, puzzles and games.

The sale will be held again in the lobby of the Edison Building. Proceeds are earmarked for scholarship funds and educational grants throughout the community.

Best sellers as well as rare editions will be available, with selected books and magazines sent to hospitals and children's homes.

AT THURSDAY'S meeting were Mrs. Lawton Taylor, equipment chairman; Mrs. Jack Fuller, sales; Mrs. Robert Kettle, solicitation; Mrs. Gilbert Greve, marketing; Mrs. Richard Hatch, handling and salvage; Mrs. Lawrence Quinn, transportation; and Mrs. William Kegei, publicity.

Those wishing to contribute books or other material may contact Mrs. Quinn or Mrs. Blunt who will be happy to arrange for collection.

Recital Planned For Sunday Night

Seventy-five guests have been invited to attend a musicale to be given at seven o'clock Sunday evening at "The Music Studio" on Greenwood avenue by students of Phyllis Stanford.

In addition to solo numbers, the program will include two-piano arrangements of the Mozart Concerto in A, Beethoven Concerto in G, Bach Preludes, and the Mozart Sonata in C, with second piano arrangement by Mrs. William Lewis, Jane Kasten, Lea Mae Marsh, Bill Waters, Wendy Sanderson, Mrs. Harvey Sanderson, Penny Ball and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ball.

Mrs. Stanford's daughter, Mrs. Robert Bentley, recently returned from a ten-month stay in New York City, will assist at the reception which will follow.

Home Gardeners Meet Bi-Monthly in Summer

The Home Gardeners unit of the Birmingham Garden Club will continue their meetings through the summer in members' gardens.

The first meeting is to be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, June 9, in the garden of Mrs. J. E. Alexander, 878 Fairfax road.

A discussion and demonstration on control of weeds, pests, and plant diseases will be followed by the usual sandwich and coffee hour.
