

Singer Signs Contract For Summer Stock Shows

Ellen Berg, well-known soprano, recently informed her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Berg of Old Mill road, that as a result of a Rogers and Hammerstein audition, she has signed a contract for summer stock with the South Shore Summer Theater. The group, located at Cohasset, Mass., will be performing such musicals as "The Student Prince," "The Red Mill," and "Oklahoma" during a ten-week period beginning June 23. Ellen is now busy in New York with costume fittings for rehearsals which start June 6.

Wanda Olin Wed May 31st In First Methodist Church

The First Methodist Church was the setting of the Saturday evening candlelight nuptials of Wanda Olin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Olin of Webster avenue, and William Shooltz, son of Mrs. Ida Shooltz of Ferndale, and the late Mr. Shooltz.

The Rev. Dr. Arnold Runkle read the double ring service for which the bride chose a gown of lace over taffeta with long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice, and taffeta train.

The gown's V-neckline was accented by a standup collar. A lace panel extended down the front of her fitted bodice. The bride wore a fingertip veil tucked in a net halo and carried a bouquet of carnations and ivy.

MRS. BELL GASTON of Mt. Vernon, Ill., was her sister's honor attendant. Her aqua gown featured a net overskirt and lace bodice over taffeta. The carnations and ivy in her headband were repeated in her bouquet.

Mrs. Melvin Allshouse and Betty Duffource completed the list of bridal attendants in yellow gowns similar to that of the matron of honor.

Performing the services of best man was the groom's brother, Harvey Shooltz of Union Lakes. The bride's brother, Carl Olin, and the groom's brother-in-law, Harold Kaschke, were the ushers.

Mrs. Olin attended her daughter's nuptials in a powder blue floor length gown of lace crepe. Mrs. Shooltz was in a floor length gown of coral crepe. Both mothers wore rose corsages.

SOLOIST FOR THE ceremony was Bob Erwin, a friend of the bride and groom.

Coming from out-of-town for the vows and the reception which followed at the Ferndale Women's Club were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bennett of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett of Decatur, Ill., and Mrs. Pearl Hutchinson of Mt. Vernon, Ill.

When the newlyweds left for a motor trip to Potawatomi and Angola, Ind., the bride wore a dusty rose wool shantung suit with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Shooltz will return this week to make their home in Royal Oak.
