All 18 members of this intermediate troop received their second class badges at last evening's Court of Awards at the Community House.

Recently the troop had a nature hike at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Carl H. Rice. Mrs. Rice, a former Juliette Low chairman, conducted the tour.

The troop's last meeting was held at a cookout at Springdale Park. The Scouts cooked their meal by means of "tin-can" stoves.

Thrive to this new outdoor cooking experience NOW!

Every 2nd-in-the-wood barbecue aficionado knows that hickory-flavored barbecue is the world's finest. Because hickory imparts a smoky, delicious aroma to any barbecue that no other wood can. The hickory logs we use always come in bundles... to be used in a charcoal grill and to be used in outdoor cooking, not to be used in a charcoal grill. You'll never have to worry about sootling hands or clothing when you use HICKORY CHARCOAL PELLETS.

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

A. Hascall, 887 Oakland, while on monotony of their jobs. Always, pace with locomotives to crossings. Engineers like it and it breaks the monotony of their jobs. Always pass the car ahead on the curves or turns. Don't use the horn, it may unnerve the fellow and cause him to turn out too far. Demand half the road—the middle half—insist on your rights! Always speed; it shows them you are a man of pep even though an amateur. Never stop, look or listen at railroad crossings; it consumes time. Always lock your brakes when skidding; it makes the job more artistic. In sloppy weather drive close to pedestrians, for dry cleaners appreciate this. Never look around when you back up; there is never anything behind you. Drive confidently just as the there were not 18 million other cars in service.

★ Smile a Minute . . . St. Peter and St. Thomas Aquinas were playing golf one heavenly afternoon and St. Peter's first drive was a hole in one. St. Thomas stepped to the tee, also scored a hole in one.

"All right, now," said St. Peter. "Let's cut out the miracles and play some real golf."
