

Weekend Ushers In Summer's Activities

Although the calendar maintains that summer won't be official until June 21, local swimming pools, and lakes, tennis courts and golf links are the scene of activity from Memorial Day on.

Clubs throughout the area, largely confined to indoor affairs during the winter months, annually break out in a rash of activity on the May 30 date.

Memorial Day activities at Oak Hill Hills were largely a family affair with attractions for all, including the sports-minded and those who would rather watch from the terrace.

GOLFERS FILLED the fairways, with prizes being awarded for winners in each class. The tennis season got underway with a mixed doubles round-robin. Presiding over the courts was William Horton, Oakland Hills' new tennis professional, known for his development of outstanding junior players, including Doris Hart who has a no. 2 singles ranking in the United States and no. 1 seeding in the doubles.

As usual, there was much splashing in the pool, with strokes and dives, rusty from a winter's inactivity, being polished by novice and expert alike. The golf, tennis and swimming fans gathered for buffet dinner in the evening.

Saturday saw the schedule repeated, with cocktails and a dinner dance highlighting the evening hours.

AT ORCHARD LAKE Country Club, Memorial Day weekend emphasis was divided between the waterfront where qualified skipper vied in novelty races; and the golf course where a driving contest, a mixed blind partners' tournament, and National Golf Day took place.

A dinner dance was scheduled for Saturday evening.

The Birmingham Country Club featured a mixed golf tournament Friday, followed by a buffet dinner.

MRS. JOHN TAYLOR KNOWLES, JR.

Honeymooning Couple To Reside In Chicago

A home in Chicago awaits newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Knowles, Jr., when they return from their wedding trip to Florida and Cuba.

The pair repeated their vows before the Rev. Dr. Phillip Stearns in the Mayflower Congregational Church of Detroit at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The bride, Margery Algene Besser, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Ault Besser of Longmeadow road. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Knowles of Chicago are the groom's parents.

For the double ceremony the bride chose a gown of white tulle with an illusion lace yoke bordered with flowers of lace and pearls.

Scattered embroidered flowerlets on her bouffant skirt and train were caught with lover's knots. Her short sleeves were finished with brief matching gauzettes.

THE BRIDE wore a close-fitting cap of lace embroidery and pearls with a three-tiered veil of illusion. She carried a nosegay of white roses.

Mrs. William Rhonehouse of Toledo, Ohio, was the matron of honor in a ballerina gown of white pleated nylon. She carried a nosegay bouquet of yellow roses and wore a matching headband.

In white pleated nylon ballerina gowns were bridesmaids Suzanne Phillips of Palmyra, N.Y., Laura Conti and Carol Schneider. Their nosegay bouquets of spring flowers matched their headbands.

Carrying a small nosegay bouquet was flower girl Barbara Jenkins who was in a white gown and matching bonnet.

JAMES WINANS of Chicago, Ill., was the best man. Ushering were William Rhonehouse of Toledo, Ohio; Col. Richard Knowles, home from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; Robert Finch, Walker Mayhew and Walter Chernysh.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Besser chose aqua nylon tulle over taffeta with shoes and hat in a matching shade. Mrs. Knowles wore coccilion blue gown over taffeta with a cameo pink hat. Both she and Mrs. Besser wore white orchid corsages.

DR. AND MRS. W. W. GRAHAM

DR. AND MRS. W. W. GRAHAM of Elgin, Neb., announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Marilyn of Ann Arbor, to Charles E. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams of Merrill street. Miss Graham is a graduate of the University of Nebraska. She completed her dietetic internship at the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she is now serving as therapeutic dietitian. Her fiance is a student at the University of Michigan. The wedding will take place July 10 in Elgin.

DELTA GAMMAS See Aid to Blind Film

"Visibility Unlimited," a 16-millimeter colored film depicting Delta Gamma members at work, will be previewed by the Birmingham alumnae on June 10. The film, compiled by 16 Delta Gamma groups throughout the country, will tell the story of their project, "Sight Conservator and Aid to the Blind."

The preview will be combined with a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. Russell Strickland, Country Club drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Scholarship Grants To U. of M. Students

ANN ARBOR—Twenty-eight scholarships will be awarded to undergraduate and graduate students in the University of Michigan School of Business Administration.

Richard H. Graves, 3891 Big Bear road, senior, received a general university scholarship. Graduate student James C. Holmes, 1019 Palmetto, was awarded the Michigan Real Estate Association scholarship.

Edward H. Laird, Jr., 363 George street, received a general university scholarship.

Degree To Be Awarded At Syracuse University
SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Barbara L. Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Kelley of Baldwin avenue, is a candidate for a baccalaureate degree at Syracuse University's 97th commencement on June 2. Miss Kelley will receive a degree in speech education from the School of Speech and Dramatic Arts and the School of Education.

June 21st Bride Names Attendants

Marilyn Eisenbach, fiancée of Edward Laird, Jr., has completed plans for her June 21 nuptials. The ceremony will take place in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Detroit, at four o'clock in the afternoon at that traditional wedding date.

Marilyn has asked her cousin, Mrs. Joseph Piper, to be her matron of honor. Her sister, Ruth Ann, and Geraldine Burke of Holly will complete the list of bridal attendants.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Eisenbach of Detroit.

TED, SON OF Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Laird of George street, will have East Grafton of Essex, Conn., for his best man.

His brother Donald, Albert J. Westlauffer, and Larry Becklund and Lloyd N. Wheeler of Ann Arbor, will seat the guests.

PARTIES IN THE PAST for Marilyn include a personal shower given May 11 by Catherine Clark of Detroit. Her bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Pimstead and Mrs. Charles Richards in Mrs. Pimstead's home on Glenhurst drive.

Another pre-nuptial hostess was Mrs. August Opat of Allen Park who entertained for Marilyn on May 25.

AT ST. CLAIR INN Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Werner of St. Clair, hosted a dinner party to announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Wolvin, to James Martin Esniff, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Esniff of Franklin Court, Franklin, Mich. Judith is a senior at Western Michigan College where she is a member of Delta Zeta. Her fiance, a senior at the University of Michigan, is affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi. No date has been set for the wedding.
