

Masked Ball Marks Guild's 20th Year

It isn't every year that an organization has a twentieth anniversary, and St. Dunstan's Guild isn't going to let their go unnoticed.

In honor of the occasion the theater group is planning a Masked Ball at the Pavilion Friday evening, March 14.

Members just won't be themselves that evening, for this is their chance to realize their fondest ambitions, and come as the characters they have always wished to portray on the stage.

The business end of the theater group will not be overshadowed, however, for some of the more practical-minded are planning to attend as tickets, lights and props. Only the orchestra will be allowed to "come as they are".

The unmasking on the stroke of midnight will be followed by supper.

MAKING PLANS for the event is the committee, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hutton, Jack Sanders, Winston Kellogg and Mrs. Otis Thompson.

Mrs. James Maunders is responsible for the decorations. Famous theatrical characters will look down on the dancers from the walls of the Pavilion where they are being painted by Zoltan Sepeshy, Marshall Fredericks, Mrs. Coppin and Mrs. Paul Averill.

IN KEEPING WITH the anniversary spirit, the original founders of twenty seasons ago will be the evening's guests of honor.

Annual Drive Underway March 17th

More than 500 women and girls, representing membership committees of YWCA branches and centers in the area, will start the YW's annual drive Monday, March 17, to add members to the Association.

Among the local women working on the membership campaign is Mrs. John K. Fralick, metropolitan membership chairman.

"THE YWCA is for You!," the slogan of this year's campaign, points up the fact that membership is open to girls and women of every race and creed," Mrs. Burton L. Fralick, metropolitan membership chairman, said.

"YWCA membership has a special significance for every woman and girl, either through participation in YW classes and clubs, through volunteer work as committee members, or simply through becoming an Association 'well-wisher'."

"For the teen-age girl, Y-Teen clubs are sponsored in most of the high schools and intermediate schools in the city," Mrs. Fralick explained.

"Clubs are sponsored also for the young employed woman, and many of these are co-ed clubs."

"OUR LADIES'-DAY-OUT programs are planned for the needs of the homemaker," Mrs. Fralick added, "and in our health and general education classes, through volunteer work as committee members, or simply through becoming an Association 'well-wisher'."

Ed Dingle will call square dancers from eight o'clock until nine, when ball-room dancing, bridge and canasta will take over. All newcomers will be welcomed.
