

City Employee Safety Program Now Underway

A safety program for city employees already has been held, according to Earl Sandquist, assistant to the city manager.

A meeting of the employees safety committee is scheduled Thursday, March 13, at 4:30 and future meetings will be planned.

The first session consisted of the showing of two films, one on safe driving and the other on safe work practices.

LAST WEEK, Bob Kenning, assistant DPW superintendent gave a lecture to members of his department on "How to Lift." His points were illustrated with pictorial sketches.

Sandquist said, "Both these meetings were well attended and well received and there has been some indication that there is a general improvement reflected already in our safety habits."

At his Thursday meeting, an insurance representative will help the committee work out the future program.

Committee members are Norman T. Knapp, Charles Hill, Rich-

Charles Edwards Post Notes Legion Founding

The 33rd anniversary of the founding of the American Legion will be observed by Charles Edwards Post on Saturday evening.

Guest speaker will be Stewart Capron, 17th District service officer for the Legion.

The program will get underway at 8:30 with a pot luck supper in the Legion home. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. R. J. Emerson, 1716 Holland.

A joint meeting of three Southfield township service clubs was held Wednesday evening, March 12, at the Southfield high school to plan a campaign to raise funds for the proposed township recreation program.

Groups meeting were the Southfield Optimist club, Metropolitan Kiwanis club and the Southfield Kiwanis club.

Included in proposed plans is a lighted field at the high school for such summer activities as soft ball, horse shoes, archery, and skating in the winter.

School Financing

Dr. Dwight Ireland and the Birmingham school board will be at the PTA meeting Monday evening. A short business meeting at 8 o'clock sharp will be followed by the program on school financing. There will be a school election for operating funds on Mar. 21 so this discussion will be of interest to all taxpayers, not just parents of the school children.

Special Meeting

The Garden group will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. John Parkins. It will be a special meeting as the husbands have been invited to see some movies loaned by the PTA seed company.

Spring Plans

The Women's club held its regular meeting West Blocton High School hall Tuesday evening. A color film of the Scandinavian countries was shown. Plans for spring meetings were made.

A "telephone" card party will be held at several homes on the evening of Saturday, April 19. Mrs. Henry Jokela is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Anna Smith, Mrs. Herman Fiebig and Mrs. Almas Snyder.

The annual mother and daughter banquet will be held in May. The next regular meeting of the club will be April 1.

Last Meeting

Walnut Lake fire department commissioners held their last meeting, Thursday evening at the Men's clubrooms. They took steps toward the dissolution of our local department, now a part of the West Blocton fire department. Those present were Don Benway, E. C. Banker, Edson Stoverson, Harry Bosard and Ray Fletcher. Friday evening at the regular meeting of the Walnut Lake Men's club, Ed Stevens representing the commissioners presented the club with the hose nozzle which came with the truck in appreciation for the work that club members did to help establish a department here.

Three Birthdays Noted

Dawne Karnes and Leslie Stevens were both twelve years old this week and celebrated with a joint party Saturday. The 18 members of the sixth grade met at the Karnes home for the birthday cake and gifts. Each girl received a corsage from her father. Then all went to the Stevens home for an evening of dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jokela had a family dinner celebrating his birthday Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barkkharie of Southfield; Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nickel of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schiek and daughters, June and Lorraine of Detroit; their sons, Russell and Milton and wives, and Fred and Russell and Mary Beth of Detroit were there.

Lake Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kane had a pot luck buffet dinner for the members of the Walnut Lake yacht club Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harro Bosard, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Benway, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pacer and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Walton were present. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fletcher have returned from a three week vacation in Miami, Fla. While there they saw Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Walnut Lake who were also on vacation.

Mrs. Philip Emrich, Mrs. Reginald Smith, Mrs. C. M. Holler, Mrs. Edward Sintz, Mrs. George Osterbeck, John Woodman and Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens attended the PTA Council meeting at the new Birmingham high school Monday evening. The group was shown through the building and then Dr. Dwight Ireland explained school financing. The next regular meeting of the Birmingham PTA Council will be held in the high school on Monday, Mar. 24.

Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nickel and sons, Hugh and Edward, have moved into their new home on third Tuesday of the month which makes the next meeting Mar. 18 at the school. The theme for the month is "Jungles".

Brownies and Girl Scouts

The Brownies of Troop 25 met at the school and then went to the home of their leader Mrs. John Parkins. Patricia Parkins, R. N. gave a demonstration in hospital bedmaking and simple sick-room procedure. Carmen Sutton served the "nibbles".

Peggy Sloat and Denise Christy were chosen to represent the troop at the Juliette Low tea at the Community House Mar. 14.

The Brownies are going to collect old magazines, in good condition, to be taken to area hospitals.

Troop 58 met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Edson Stevens. Martha Koskinen served the "nibbles" and the following officers were elected for the remainder of the year: Judy Sundstrom, president; Pamela Parkins, secretary; Barbara Sinclair, treasurer. They practiced ballroom dancing.

Troop 60 met at the school with their leader, Mrs. James Roberts. Joan Smith provided the refreshments and Kay Graber presented the game of the week. After a short business meeting half of the girls gave a play for the others as part of their second class requirements.
