PTA Meeting

Dr. Emmett Schott, psychologist on the staff of Henry Ford hospital in Detroit, will address the Franklin PTA when it meets at 8:30 p.m. Monday, Mar. 24 at the Franklin school. His topic will be "What Shall We Teach Our Children About Sex?" His talk will be followed by the movie "Human Growth", devoted to the theme of this meeting. Mrs. Louise Cook, science teacher, Mrs. Robert Egan and John Rumsey, parents, are expected to serve on the panel which is to lead discussion after the picture.

In the business meeting before the program, the annual election of officers will be held. Members will vote on a proposed change in the day on which meetings are to be held. Dr. Dwight Ireland, superintendent of the school system, will speak briefly during the business meeting, discussing the Mar. 31 school election which will include a vote on the proposed 3 1/2 mill tax for operational expenditures. A 5-mill tax authorization for this purpose is expiring and the school board asks that the tax be reinstated at the lower rate.
