YMCA Moves Into Semifinals On Win

Birmingham YMCA Men's Varsity moved into the semi-finals of the Metropolitan Detroit "Y" playoffs with a 52 to 51 overtime win over Hansa Memorial YMCA of Detroit.

Birmingham was constantly behind in the scoring and did not knock the count until a few minutes before the final whistle. The Dark Green trailed 13 to 12 at the quarter and 26 to 18 at the half.

It was a fourth quarter spurt in which the local five made 19 points that showed them into overtime play, and Sonny Blackwell's foul throw in the closing seconds of play gave Birmingham a much deserved win.

Bob Folin and Earl Mudge shared scoring honors with 13 points each but it was John Sincic's under the basket shooting in the fourth quarter that brought victory to Birmingham.

Birmingham meets St. Antoine "Y" tonight (March 27) at 9 p.m.

NOW IS THE TIME TO COME TO THE AID OF YOUR TREES AND SHRUBS

The health and profusion of bloom will be promoted by proper pruning. (Lay off the maples until later.)

After pruning be sure to paint the wounds with tree paint.

Then apply dormant spray (Scalecide or Lime Sulphur) to trees and shrubs to help control scale insects.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

MRS. GEORGE T. HENDRIE, 359 Willis: "Although the compulsory military training bill has been referred back to committee, giving those opposed to it some respite, it is by no means a dead issue. There has been so much misinformation and so little understanding of this proposed radical change in our historic policy that many people are just beginning to realize the dangers in this permanent conscription policy which has nothing to do with Korea. I hope that everyone will study the bill and make their opinions known to our representatives. I am so strongly opposed to it that I think if it should carry, it will prove that this country has been thoroughly militarized."
