MRS. JACK A. STOLTON

Barbara Carrier Wed March 15th To J. A. Stolton

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the March 15 marriage vows between Barbara Carrier and Jack Alan Stolton. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Carrier of Villa road, chose a gown of white satin accented with covered buttons extending from the fitted bodice to a high neckline. Seed pearls trimmed her pointed collar. Her bouffant skirt carried into a medium train. A pearl edged Juliet cap held her fingertip veil and she carried white stock centered with camellias.

THE BRIDE'S sister Sally was her maid of honor. She and bridesmaids Ann Pribe and Beverly Hathaway wore identical strapless gowns of cyclamen pink taffeta and tiny jackets. Small rosette headdresses and bouquets of tulips and hydrangeas completed their costumes. Miss Hathaway, former roommate of the bride at Bowling Green University, came from her home in Gambier, Ohio, to be in the wedding party. David Stolton was his brother's best man. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sven Stolton of Conneaut, Ohio. Theodore Parsell of Marion, Ohio, and Paul Haytcher of Ashabula, Ohio, seated the guests. The bride's mother was in soft aqua taffeta accented with a corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Stolton wore a champagne gown of lace and chiffon with a matching hat. Her flowers were also sweetheart roses.
