Representative of Altruism in Area
Spendng several weeks in the Southern Oakland County area Mrs. Eunice Cline of Springfield, Mrs. Cline is a field representative for Altruism, International, Inc., and in this area to form Altruism clubs in various SOC communities.
Altruism is the oldest of the women's classified service clubs, preceding woman suffrage by two years. Taking its name from the word "altruism," the first Altruism Club was organized in Nashville, Tenn., in 1917.
Altruism became international in 1935. Its home office is in Chicago.
LIKE THE MEN'S service clubs, membership is by classification. Mrs. Cline stated that she is "interested in contacting executive, administrative and professional women who would undertake the organization of clubs here."
She added that, upon receiving their charter, each club is presented to the community for service at a dinner.

Three Little Pigs' Pay Call To Children's Hospital Today

Thursday, March 6, will be a big affair for the youngest boys and girls at Children's Hospital, Farmington. At three o'clock they will see "The Three Little Pigs" presented by two members of the Birmingham Puppeteers.
The show written by puppeteer Mrs. Rodkey Craighead, is keyed to the level of the child as young as four, and has already been enthusiastically viewed by several kindergarten age groups at local birthday parties, as well as by youngsters at the Whittier school, Pontiac.
THE FIVE marionettes were designed and constructed by Mrs. Calvin Demmon, with costuming by Mrs. Michael Remondino and Mrs. Donald Howarth.
Properties and backdrops are the work of Mrs. James Siddall, Mrs. Jack Moore, Mrs. Frank Mosher and Mrs. Russell B. Stephens. Mrs. Craighead and Mrs. Demmon will present the show.
To make possible more performance at school and hospitals, an alternate cast will also learn the parts.
THE PUPPETEERS will hold their monthly get-together at the home of Mrs. Taylor Coleman, 1228 Cedar Drive Tuesday, March 11.
The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. Plans for a show on the larger marionette stage will be discussed. Anyone interested should call Mrs. Charles Bigelow of 31236 Pierce, leader of the group.
