Book Review To Benefit Camp Oak'd

Next in a series of Birmingham Women's Club benefits for Camp Oakland, their project of the year, is a book review tea sponsored by the American Home department. The affair will be held at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 11, in the parlors of the Baptist Church. In keeping with the Lenten season, Mrs. William Tighe has selected "A Man Called Peter," by Catherine Marshall for her review.

Greeting guests that afternoon will be hostesses Mrs. E. H. Cunningham, Mrs. W. D. Brenkert, Mrs. H. A. Morrow, Mrs. Edwin Minick, Mrs. Howard Reid and Mrs. George Jackson.

Mrs. Minick is also chairman of the tea committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Brenkert, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. E. D. Shiley and Mrs. E. Crookston.

THERE WILL BE no admission charge for the program which is open to all. A silver collection will be taken, with proceeds being donated to the Camp Oakland fund.

Joann Lawlor Wed Saturday In Ceremony on West Coast

In St. Joseph's cathedral, San Diego, Cal., Joann Lawlor became the bride of Lt. (j.g.) Richard J. Lynch in a noon ceremony Saturday, March 1.

The bride, an ensign in the United States Navy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Lawlor of Mattell drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor, their daughters, Annie and Sally, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lynch of Mt. Pleasant, were present at the nuptials and the wedding breakfast which followed at the San Diego Athletic Club.

MRS. RICHARD J. LYNCH

THE BRIDE repeated her vows in an ankle-length gown designed with a pale blue nylon net skirt, and a Chantilly lace bodice and over-skirt.

Matching Chantilly lace featured her long sleeves. Her off-shoulder neckline was filled in with a net yoke and topped with several strands of pearls. Her shoulder-length veil was of tulle.

Anne Lawlor was her sister's only attendant. Her gown was of white tulle.

John Lynch was his brother's best man.

AFTER A TWO-WEEK wedding trip motoring through California and Arizona, the couple will return to San Diego where both are stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor and their two daughters will travel in California for a few weeks before returning home.

Jr. Musicale Performance This Evening

At 7:30 this evening, members of the Junior League Musicale will gather at the home of Joann Gasaway, 3545 Wooddale Court, Bloomfield Village for a program of brass and woodwind instruments.

The performers are all recent winners of high ratings in the Southeastern District Solo and Ensemble Festival held at Ypsilanti.

A trombone solo, "Starlight" by Arthur Pryor, will be played by Tom Masters.

Ann Finkenauer will give a clarinet solo presentation of Homer's "Rhapsody". Levy's "Grand Russian Fantasia" will be played in a cornet solo by Bill Berndt.

Joan Gasaway will present the oboe solo "Concerto for Oboe and Strings" by Barbierolli. Playing Lively's cornet solo, "My Regards" will be Jerry Mills.

THE CORNET TRIO of Bill Berndt, Woody Dure and Edward Nordstrom will play "Flirtations" by Herbert Clarke.

They will join with Kirk Lewis, Ralph Crawford and Ronald Thompson to present Schumann's "The Strangers".

Piano accompanists for the program will be Mrs. A. W. Berndt and Mrs. H. G. Gasaway, Jr.
