

Redeemer Pastor Lists Mid-Week Lenten Topics
 "Pilate, the Faithless" is the topic of the second of the Lenten mid-week services at Redeemer Lutheran church. All services are held at 8 p.m., with the Rev. Theodore Wegmayer preaching. Subsequent topics are "Cathaph, the Apostle," Mar. 19; "Joseph, the Tinsmith," Mar. 20 and "Mary, the Mother," Apr. 2. Each week one of Christ's intimate associates is presented and viewed in the light of human experiences today.

What's Being Planned By BIRMINGHAM CHURCHES
 Copy for the church page must be in The Eccentric office by 3:30 p.m., Thursday.

First Presbyterian
 Members of the church school staff will be recognized at a dinner given in their honor at 6:30 p.m. on Mar. 12. Husbands and wives of members will also be guests of the Christian Education council, working in behalf of the congregation. The speaker will be the Rev. Garner Odell, curriculum writer and director of Christian education for the Synod of Michigan.

First Baptist
 Mrs. Carolyn McLess will review the book, "Miracle of Carville."

A special series of Wednesday evening services are being planned around Christ's teachings on vital matters. The series opened last evening with "About the Might of Right," and on Mar. 12 will continue with "About the Use of Money." A brief church meeting and 7 o'clock supper are also planned. During the social hour the Rev. Emil Kottz will show color films of Florida. Future topics of these meetings will be "About the Power of

Prayer, "About True Religion," "About the Problem of Pain," and "About Retrospective Praying."
 The Young Adult class will hold its monthly meeting and supper in the church tomorrow evening. Current problems, peculiar modern living, are presented and discussed in the light of the Christian Faith.

Redeemer Lutheran
 "Artistic Table Settings" will be the subject of Ruth Smalley, when she is the guest of the Ladies Missionary society at 10 o'clock this afternoon. Backed with 15 years experience as a home economist, she will speak on how to coordinate the table, selection and coordination of materials and how to achieve interesting table effects for the family as well as guests. She will also give a brief history of china and crystal.

Our Shepherd
 The Women's club will sponsor a bake sale Mar. 8, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., in Grinnell middle store, 115 S. Woodward. Mrs. Howard G. Allward is chairman of the sale.

Unity Center
 Beltrum M. Cox, recently elected president of the Unity Center, announced today that Frank C. Glabach will speak Sunday on "Unity Viewpoint of Faith." The service will be held at 11 a.m., in the Center's room, Theater building. Other officers include Mrs. A. Thomas Schooley, vice president; Mrs. Virginia S. Tawcher, secretary; Mrs. Eleanor Bissett, treasurer and Mrs. T. A. Henshaw to have charge of books and pamphlets.

Girls' Clothing Drive
 The Girls World Friendship group of the First Methodist Sunday school is planning a clothing drive for Sunday, Mar. 9. Items of clothing brought to the church will be sent to Maryland where they will be repacked for shipment to Korea. Members of the group may be contacted for any donations available.

Baptist Church Sponsors Recital
 A musical event of wide appeal takes place in Birmingham when Arnold E. Bourziel, M.A., A.A. G.O., gives an organ recital on Sunday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m., in the First Baptist church. He has a background of excellent training and varied experience, is known in this area as the former assistant organist and choir-master at Christ Church Cranbrook, having served there three years under Dr. W. Lloyd Kemp.

Unity Center
 He served as organist in Detroit churches for several years and was director of vocal music in the Pontiac high school for nearly ten years. At present he is the organist and choir-master at Trinity Episcopal church in Niles. He also teaches piano, organ and voice. He is a member of the St. Joseph Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Bourziel will feature the works of both the older masters of the organ and modern musicians. Part 1 will include numbers by Campra, Schumann, Daquin, Martini, Krieger, Bach, Munkelberghe, Clouy, Elinore, Marriotti, and Edmundson.

Part 2 will include numbers by Campra, Schumann, Daquin, Martini, Krieger, Bach, Munkelberghe, Clouy, Elinore, Marriotti, and Edmundson. The recital is open to the public.

SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS
 Sunday, Mar. 9 Redeemer Lutheran
 "Forgive, and You Shall Be Forgotten" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Theodor Wegmayer at both the 9 and 11 o'clock services Sunday morning. A special anthem will be sung by the children's choir.

First Presbyterian
 The Rev. W. Glen Harris, Ph.D., will speak on "The Christian Steward" at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services. His sermon will be based on the theme that mankind has been entrusted with the management of the church which belongs to Jesus Christ.

First Baptist
 Based on the general theme, "The Deep Longings of Life," the Rev. Emil Kottz will present the second in a series of sermons at 11 a.m. His topic this week will be "The Longing for God."

At 7:30 the pastor will give the second in the series of five-day vespers services, speaking this week on "Up to the Temple." The series is based on the final journeys of Jesus, immediately prior to the Crucifixion.

New—the one fine car deliberately designed for modern living

Lincoln for 1952

In two incomparable series...
 —the Cosmopolitan—the Capri

Standard equipment, accessories, and view illustrated are subject to change without notice. While side-view lines, when available, optional at extra cost.

OUR showroom is a magnificently new idea in motoring for the American Road. It is remarkably different; it has a daring spirit that has never been approached in motoring. It is Lincoln for 1952.

Here is a new kind of fine car—eminently functional, breath-takingly beautiful but honest and sensible in design, created to hit every motoring need of modern living.

Here is a new kind of design—clean, uncluttered from stem to stern. A sizable but maneuverable masterpiece.

And here is a new kind of power—superbly responsive and efficient power— from a completely new overhead valve, high-compression engine. It delivers 160 horsepower and is the pride of the men who have built more V-8s than all other makers combined.

The Lincoln Cosmopolitan and the Lincoln Capri await you in our showroom. We invite you to see their new lines, discover their supreme performance, experience the new and modern concept of the fine car.
