

Youth Council Furnishes Steak Dinner for Team

Members of the First Presbyterian Church's intermediate basketball team were honored with a steak dinner by the Youth Council and parents Tuesday evening at the church. The team finished at the top of the second division in the local "Y" church league and reached the quarterfinals in the metropolitan church play-offs.

Those honored were Sam Stinson, Tom Stinson, Andy Dennison, Douglas Cowell, Bill Nicholas, Tom Masters, Dick Emery, Mike Carlson, Mickey Plumstead and Coach Bud Olmstead.

Brief talks on teamwork and sportsmanship were given by the Reverend Robert Graham and Edwin F. Kirbert.

Social Security Head Addresses Y

John Neill, 410 Bessville, supervisor of the social security division at Pontiac, will address the Birmingham Y's Men's group at its 6:45 p.m. meeting Monday, May 5, in the new "Y" building. His topic will be "Your Stake in Social Security."

Don Gault, chairman of the program committee, will preside.

Handbills for the May 17 "Y" benefit at the Ralph Schwarz service station will be handed out and areas for distribution will be assigned. Dinner reservations are being taken by Chuck Warner, Bob Andrews, and the YMCA.
