Walnut Lake PTA Elects Officers

Walnut Lake PTA met at the school Monday evening for a business meeting, annual elections and a musical program.

At the business meeting members authorized purchase of a coffee pot for the kitchen, and Girl Scout hats for the Brownie Fly-Up girls. It was decided that the annual picnic has become too large and consequently three smaller picnics would be held.

The slate was elected unanimously. To be installed at the May meeting are Edson Stevens, president; John Woodman, vice-president; Mrs. Euginald Smith, mother vice-president; Keith Symon, father vice-president; Miss Marjorie Votey, teacher vice-president; Frank Sweet, treasurer; Donald Brown, secretary; and Miss Nola Peasley, teacher representative.
