

Beverly Brennen June 14 Bride

There are six weeks between now and June 14 but when a bride-elect is in school, attending showers, and making arrangements between classes and exams, the time is taken up quickly.

University of Michigan students Beverly Brennen and Demosthenes Booth will repeat their vows at St. James Episcopal Church on Saturday evening, June 14.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. A. J. Brennen of Floyd avenue. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Booth of Sault Sainte Marie.

BEVERLY'S pre-nuptial parties began during Easter vacation with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Morse Fairbanks on April 7.

Diane DuBois of Royal Oak hosted a linen shower the following day. An April 9 shower was given by Mrs. William Lawson of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Beverly was the recipient of a kitchen shower April 25, hosted by Dorothy Cavenaugh of Detroit. Ann Arbor festivities include a shower to be given by the bride-elect's sorority sisters in Gamma Phi Beta.

THE REHEARSAL DINNER will be tendered by Beverly's grandmother, Mrs. William Gross, in her Huntington Woods home the eve of the wedding, June 13.

Family members, out-of-town guests and the wedding party will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Allen of Pilgrim road for a buffet dinner before the nuptials the evening of June 14.

MRS. WILLIAM D. CRIM, JR.

William Crim, Jr., Weds Dorothy Ann Hill in East

Former Birmingham resident William Doolittle Crim, Jr., and Dorothy Ann Hill were married Saturday afternoon, April 26. The ceremony took place in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of Wilkesburg, Pa., and was performed by the Rev. A. Dixon Rollit.

The bride, Clark daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Winslip Hill of Murrysville, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. William Doolittle Crim, longtime Birmingham residents now making their home in Ann Arbor, are the parents of the groom.

THE BRIDE'S white lace ballerin gown was fashioned with a low round neckline and long tight sleeves. Her fingertip tulle veil was edged in heirloom rosepointe lace.

Her white debutante bouquet of spring flowers was centered with a pale pink rose corsage which she later planned to her dove-grey tailored suit for traveling.

Mrs. Clarence Williamson of Pittsburgh was the bride's matron of honor. She and the maid of honor, Peggy Jo Crim, the groom's sister, wore identical ballerina gowns of aqua lace and nylon tulle.

Their head hands and debutante bouquets were formed with tall-man roses.

JOHN WINTHROP CRIM came from Elms, N. Y. to be his brother's best man. Guests were seated by another brother, B. Shepard Crim, the bride's brother, James Hill, Richard C. Page and Francis C. McMath.

The bride's mother wore a gown of dark aqua lace with brown accessories and a yellow rose corsage. Her grandmother, Mrs. George E. Hill, was in navy blue crepe with an American Beauty rose corsage.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Crim wore blue and white fallie with white accessories and a white corsage.

A RECEPTION at the parish house immediately followed the rites. Among those making the trip to Wilkesburg for the nuptials were Mrs. Francis C. McMath of Bloomfield Hills, Susan D. Copland of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. and Mrs. John Landau of Dearborn.

After a western motor trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor.
