Back From West Coast

Mrs. Kenneth Herman of Captain's lane, who left in November for three weeks on the west coast, is back after prolonging her stay to five months. After four months at the Town and Desert resort hotel at Palm Springs she took an apartment in Pasadena for a month. Herman made four flying trips to the coast and son Kenneth, Jr., a student at Michigan State, spent a month around Christmas with his mother. Herman left last week with a group of men from New York to fly to New Brunswick for salmon fishing.

Florida Notes

Mr. and Mrs. George Altmansberger and children Karen, Nancy and Ricky, who left the latter part of March to vacation in the south, are back in their home on Whalley road. They made Boca Raton their holiday headquarters.

Back from a vacation at Sarasota are the George Gerlach's, of Captains lane.

The August Larsons and son Robert of Bingham road have just returned after spending five months in their winter home at Ft. Lauderdale. Larson made flying trips home every four weeks to keep in touch with his interests here.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Ryan returned to their home on Briarcliff road last Wednesday after a four-week vacation at Sarasota. Their headquarters there was the Golden Strand hotel.

Bon Voyage Party

Mrs. Carl Binkle of Birmingham was honored guest recently at a luncheon and bridge party, a bon voyage salute given by Mrs. Paul Ziegelbaur at her home on Franklin road. Mr. and Mrs. Binkle left last Tuesday for a tour of Europe.

Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Win Hinman were hosts when the Child Study club met at their home on Wellington road last Tuesday evening. Members from Dearborn, Detroit, Pontiac, Walled Lake and Franklin were present.

Spring Party

St. Anne's Guild met at the home of Mrs. Carson Bingham, on Bingham road, yesterday for their annual spring party. A buffet potluck luncheon for 40 was followed by an afternoon of cards.

Cub Scout Bake Sale

Cub Scout Troop B-11 will hold a bake sale at the community hall next Saturday, May 3. The doors will open at 10 a.m. The boys' mothers will prepare the pastries and will lend a hand in their sale. Profits will go into the Cub Scout fund.

Evening Circle Plans

Members of the Evening circle plan to meet twice each month to work on items for the annual fall bazaar. Planned for the second Tuesday evening and the first Wednesday morning of each month, the first special meeting was held last week Wednesday at the Woodlore road home of Mrs. Edward Green. The next such session is scheduled for 8 p.m., Tuesday, May 13, at the home of Mrs. Harry Rottiers, 25295 W. 13 Mile road. In charge of the Circle's bazaar plans is Mrs. Eugene Kelly, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Harry Rottiers, finances, Mrs. Lewis Evans, publicity, and Mrs. Arthur Hays, ideas.

Garden Club Tonight

The Garden club is to meet tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hinman for a discussion of trees. Each participant is to present information on a favorite tree.

Gustavus D. Pope Memorial Saturday

Memorial services for the late Gustavus D. Pope will be held at Christ Church Cranbrook at 2 p.m., Saturday, May 3. Flowers are to be omitted at the request of the family with memorial gifts being sent to the American Red Cross, Cranbrook Institute of Science or the Christ Church Marquis Memorial fund.

Mr. Pope died March 2 in California where he and his wife had been spending the winter.

He became actively associated with the Red Cross program in 1914 and became a director of the Cranbrook Foundation in 1927. In 1930 he was made a trustee of the Institue of Science and in 1942 of the Academy of Art. He also had served as an official at Christ Church Cranbrook.

March Arrests By State Police Reach New Peak

Michigan State Police made 8,990 arrests during March, the highest number ever recorded for a single month in the history of the department.

The previous high was 8,816 in May of 1951. During March last year there were 7,429.

According to the department's monthly activity report, the new all-time high included 8,322 arrests for traffic offenses. Motorists who failed to obtain their new license plates before the March 1 deadline accounted for about a thousand of the arrests.

IN ADDITION, there were 437 delinquent and wayward minors and juvenile traffic offenders.

The department handled 5,270 complaints in all matters. Troopers also made 28,523 property inspections and 3,938 liquor inspections.

The East Lansing headquarters identification bureau received 6,467 sets of fingerprints to bring the total on file to 3,522,801. Of this number 1,824,592 are in the criminal section and 1,698,209 in the non-criminal.

Through fingerprints 15 persons wanted by police as fugitives were identified. Of 576 applicants for licenses to carry concealed weapons, 59 were found to have criminal records.
