

It is not given to any single man or woman among us to make over the whole condition of mankind. God in himself, though, that each of us attend to the making of his own best life... and thus by example attract others to the virtues of correct living.

Junior League Calendar Full

With the zest and enthusiasm that won them the recognition of a separate chapter recently, the Birmingham Junior League is deep in plans for the spring. Top on the list of spring projects is the League's presentation of "Red Riding Hood." Opening performances are scheduled for May 3 at the Community House at 11:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m., and 3 p.m.

MRS. WILLIAM BREECH is directing the drama which is presented by the League's Children's Theatre, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John W. Sanders. Cast members aiding the heroine, Mrs. Robert King to escape from the wolf, Mrs. Philip Hart; are Mrs. Charles Gieg, Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Jrs. and Mrs. Everett Fisher.

A "sneak preview" of Red Riding Hood's trials and tribulations was had at the general membership breakfast last week at the Community House.

A SYNOPSIS of work done by local Junior Leaguers was presented in a series of brief talks by those active in the many facets of community service done by the League.

The wide scope of Junior League work was further illustrated by speakers from the Michigan Society of Mental Health; Detroit League of the Handicapped; Tau Beta Community House; Holiday House Camp; Tribute Fund board; the Children's Center, the Curative Workshop; and the Urban League.

The list continues with speakers from the Children's Hospital and Convalescent Home; the Founders' Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts and the Mental Hygiene Association.

PRESENTING THE two-minute speeches were Mrs. William G. Crawford, Phoebe Otter, Mrs. Charles C. Otto, Jr., Mrs. William H. Breech, Mrs. Edward E. Wilson, Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Mrs. Richard C. Van Dusen, Mrs. Henry S. Booth, Mrs. Winthrop B. Conrad, Mrs. Harry D. Wise, Jr., Mrs. Robert Wardrop, Mrs. George A. Masted, Mrs. Harry D. Hoey, Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot and Mrs. William T. Gossett, education chairman for the Birmingham League.

The program was followed by election of officers, the first since the Birmingham group received its charter as a separate League in January.

'Sculpture in Flowers' Aids Sight Conservation Program

"Sculpture in Flowers" will be presented by the Birmingham association of Delta Gamma a Wednesday afternoon, May 7, at the Community House.

The program, which begins at two o'clock, will feature Delbert Adams, floral designer of the Adam's Greenhouse. Included will be simple arrangements of garden flowers as well as the more intricate sculpturing of floral designs. Some of the designs will be awarded as door prizes.

Proceeds will be used to further Delta Gamma's national project, sight conservation and aid to the blind.

MRS. RUSSELL STRICKLAND, national chairman of the Project Committee, will briefly outline the history of the sight

Cranbrook's Summer Day-Camp Begins June 23rd

It will soon be camp time again in the area of Lone Pine road, for Kingswood and Cranbrook Schools have announced plans for the 1952 Summer Day Camp.

The fun will start June 23 and will continue through August 1. Utilizing the facilities of both schools, the program includes swimming in the outdoor pools, tennis, softball, nature study and organized play activities.

Also planned are courses in weaving, ceramics, drawing and painting for girls, and courses in arts, craft and science for boys. A course in weaving which will be taught in the morning, will also be offered for adults.

Heading the staff again will be Dorothy E. Inglis and William Schultz, Jr., co-directors. The majority of the instructors are regular members of the staffs of Cranbrook, Kingswood, and Brookside Schools.

program and some of its many facets.

Since 1936 Delta Gammans have given their best efforts individually and in groups to work related to sight conservation and aid to the blind.

At the 1946 convention, the decision was made to broaden the program on a national level by providing scholarships for special training in helping blind children.

Applicants for special training come from all over the country and from abroad to be screened by the Project Committee and a professional group. Each applicant must be approved by the second vice-president of Delta Gamma.

ALTHOUGH DELTA GAMMA maintains a nursery school in Los Angeles for blind children in that area, the national organization encourages local groups to further projects in their own area.

At the local level, Delta Gamma participate in the Leader Dog League at Rochester.

National committee members in the area include Mrs. H. V. Draheim, Shirley Hersey, Mrs. Dexter Horton, Mrs. Fred Finkbeiner, and Mrs. Arthur Brookman.

MAKING ARRANGEMENTS for the May 7 benefit are Mrs. Victor Brink, Mrs. Brookman, Mrs. William Todd, Mrs. David Taylor, Mrs. Robert Watt, Mrs. Finkenauer, Mrs. Frederick Hertrick and Mrs. James Smith.

JUNE 21 nuptials are in the offing for Gloria Polvin and Richard Cray. Gloria is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Polvin of Detroit and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cloud L. Cray of Atchison, Kansas, formerly of Wing Lake.

Local Gardens To Be Open June 14-15th

The recent warm spell was all that was needed to bring the first tips of spring flowers above the ground. During the next few weeks local gardeners will be anxiously watching these "sprouts" for they have a date with the public in early June.

Birmingham and Bloomfield gardens are scheduled to be opened for the annual Garden Pilgrimage the weekend of June 14-15. Sponsored by garden clubs from the entire Detroit area, proceeds from the Pilgrimage go into the maintenance fund for the Detroit Garden Center.

MRS. FRANK WEBB of Arlington road is chairman of Tour III which includes Birmingham, Bloomfield, Palmer Woods and Huntington Woods. She will be assisted in this area by Mrs. Everett H. Wells and Mrs. E. P. Turner.

Among those opening their gardens for the Pilgrimage will be Mr. and Mrs. Douglas R. Strigley of Fairfax road, Mr. and Mrs. David Van Dusen of Waddington road, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Norton of Lone Pine road, Mrs. Ralph L. Folk of Lone Pine road, Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Clark of North Adams road, and the Kirk-in-the-Hills on West Long Lake road.

Next Year's Plans Will Be Discussed By Barnum Mothers

Mothers of students in the 8th and 9th grades at Barnum Junior High School will meet at the school at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Purpose of the meeting will be a discussion of curriculum choices for next year's 9th and 10th grades.

Angus M. Tavish, Barnum principal, Muriel Brusse and M. A. Tindall, advisors, will discuss requirements for high school graduation; subjects offered; methods of earning college recommendations; and the basic Barnum uses in evaluating needs in relation to the program.

Mrs. LeRoy E. Kiefer, chairman of Mothers' Groups at Barnum, added that questions will be welcomed at the meeting.

MRS. MARTIN SVILAND Sviland-Caputo Nuptials Held At Noon Saturday

Carmela Caputo became the bride of Martin Sviland at high noon Saturday. The Rev. Gerald MacEachin of East Lansing officiated at her vows which took place in Holy Name church.

Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Caputo of Charter street are the parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sverre Sviland of Escanaba.

The bride's white satin gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and Queen Ann collar studded with mother-of-pearl figures. Her fingertip veil was made of French imported rosepoint. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

HONOR ATTENDANT Carmen Amato and bridesmaid Nancy Beck were in gowns of pink nylon tulle over blue taffeta with tiered skirts.

Their bouquets were composed of pink carnations and violets.

Joe Storm of Saginaw performed the services of best man. Edward Adolph of East Lansing, Jim Abercrombie and the bride's brother, Art Caputo, seated the guests.
