The scholarship, given by the Royal Oak-Civilian Defense board, will begin July 22. Horton teaches American history in Royal Oak schools.

Air Reserve Meets Under New Leader

Major Howard A. Dinger has recently been appointed commanding officer of the 9608th Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron. He succeeds Major James C. Smith of Ferndale who is moving to California. Major Dinger resides at 509 Dewey, Royal Oak.

Capt. William Wallace of the Marine Corps Reserve will speak on "The Marines in Korea" at the bi-weekly training session of the 9608th Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron on Monday, May 19, 1952. The meeting begins at 7:30 P.M. at Lincoln High School, West Nine Mile Road and Listerwood, Ferndale.

Maj. Howard A. Dinger, commanding officer of the squadron, urges all air reservists in the area to attend this meeting. Credits will be given to those attending whether they be assigned to the squadron or not.

New Homes Must Have Larger Septic Tanks

An amendment to the Southfield township building code requiring new homes to have 750-gallon septic tanks was passed by the township board Tuesday night.

Government loans to veterans were being stopped on homes with the present minimum 500-gallon tanks and the township decided to raise the size of the tanks in accordance with surrounding townships.

Air ROTC Cadet Receives Award

Joseph Tripiak, 711 E. 16 Mile road, a Birmingham student at Wayne University, was singled out for honors last week as the University's Air Force ROTC unit held its annual awards day and federal inspection.

Cadet Tripiak received the Ford Motor Company trophy and medal as the best drilled freshman in the Air Force unit. Drill competitions to determine the winning cadet were held at Tartar Field.

Historic Election

Lantz L. Mackey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lantz Mackey, 18577 San Jose, Southfield township, and sophomore at Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, has been elected president of Beta Delta chapter, Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. It is the first time in the history of the chapter that a sophomore has been so honored.

Await State Approval

The Southfield township board decided Tuesday night to wait for health reports from the State Health Department before renewing any restaurant licenses in the township.

Utilities Request Denied

The request of Walter H. Gray of Pontiac, for Birmingham to supply sewer and water service for an apartment building he plans to erect on Adams road has been denied by city commissioners. It was explained that since the area is outside the city limits, it is against Birmingham policy to supply utility services.

County Official's Book Will Be Released Soon

Oakland county's assistant prosecuting attorney, Donald A. Plankel, 7405 Parkstone Lane, has just climbed the first rung of a new ladder to success, with the acceptance of his first novel, "Twisted Tracks."

Plankel said he started the book, the story of an early figure in the American automotive field, about seven years ago, for his own amusement. The book will soon be released by Vantage Press, New York publishers.

The Birmingham attorney admits he has another book almost finished, but says he will wait until his first work appears before completing it.
