Southfield Area PTA Council Plans Instruction Day June 3

The Southfield Area PTA Council has set aside Tuesday, June 3, for a School of Instruction at the Southfield High School, Lahser and 10 Mile road. The session is intended to provide information regarding PTA work for all incoming PTA officers, chairmen of standing committees, and other PTA workers. Members of the Southfield PTA Council will be the day's host and hostesses. A child-care center will be maintained by Girl Scouts under adult supervision.

STARTING AT 10 A.M. with a "coffee interlude", the program will get underway at 10:15 a.m. with a general assembly in the library. Glenn Schoenhals, superintendent of schools will give the opening address. Mrs. William DeVoe, past president of the Michigan and Detroit council, will discuss "PTA, School and Community". The PTA Council and its Work" will be outlined by Mrs. George McCardell, district 6 director of the Michigan Congress.

Mrs. McCardell will moderate a symposium which will include discussions of parliamentary procedure and by-laws, program planning, room representatives, and public relations. Participating will be Mrs. Wayne Mohr, Mrs. Stewart Schaefer, Mrs. Charles W. Nedrett and Mrs. Nevin L. Bean.

AFTER LUNCHEON a period of time has been reserved for discussion groups. At 3 p.m. Council officers for 1952-53 will be installed. Mrs. McCardell will officiate.

Those wishing to attend are requested to contact Mrs. Rigby Leighton, PTA council president, by May 28 for reservations.

Panel Ponders Quorton Question

Eleven members of Quorton PTA met with Dr. Dwight E. Ireland, Birmingham school superintendent, for an evening session May 21, at which the overcrowded condition of Quorton school and possible solutions will be considered.

A thorough study will be made of Dr. T. C. Holy's report, "Birmingham School Survey and Use". This fact-finding meeting will be followed by a forum to be presented by the eleven parents and Dr. Ireland at the scheduled Quorton PTA meeting at 7:45 Wednesday evening, May 28.

THE FIVE MEN, five women, and moderator composing the panel are endeavoring to gain a consensus of opinion as to whether a new school is needed south of Maple, or additions be made to Quorton.

Participating are Mrs. E. W. Bardgett, Mrs. William J. Bird, Mrs. William G. Lecher, Jr., Mrs. Jack Laula, Mrs. W. Ogden Vost, Harry Muehlinger, Uri Grannis, Charles Dwyer, John Lorimer and Arthur Brookman.

Martin Butzel will moderate the panel discussions.
