MRS. DANIEL C. DEGRAFF, JR.

Ensign Claims Bride Saturday In Christ Church Ceremony

Phoebe Kathryn Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Campbell of East, Ingoton road, became the bride of Ensign Daniel C. DeGraff, Jr., USCG, at a Saturday evening ceremony in Christ Church Crambrook.

The Rev. William Mead officiated at the service which took place at 7:30 p.m. Among those present were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. DeGraff of Saginaw.

The bride repeated her vows in a white organdy gown. Her bouffant embroidered overskirt fell into a cathedral train. The embroidery on her elbow-length mitts was matched by insets at her shoulders. Short cuffed sleeves completed the gown.

Her open-crowned bonnet held a fingertip length veil of silk illusion, and she carried a nosegay of astromaria.

MRS. E. M. CAMPBELL was her sister-in-law's matron of honor. Completing the roster of bridesmaids were the bride's cousins, Jeanne Endres and Mrs. Ralph Cobb. Her niece, Lucy Ann Campbell, performed the services of flower girl.

The attendants wore white organdy gowns over yellow underskirts. Daisies formed their headpieces and bouquets. The flower-girl's all-white gown was accented with a yellow sash.

James Hufford was the best man. Seating the guests were E. Mac Campbell, Max Stewart, Stuart Fox and Lewis Whiting.

At the reception which followed in the church house Mrs. Campbell greeted guests in a gown of aqua lace and matching hat. Mrs. DeGraff was in navy blue with a light blue flowered hat.

When the couple left for Northern Canada the new Mrs. DeGraff was wearing a blue suit highlighted by a white collar and hat, and topped with a red coat.

On their return from their wedding trip, the newlyweds will live in Detroit where Ensign DeGraff is stationed with the Coast Guard.

James Fox Europe Bound

Three months in Europe are ahead for Jim Fox, son of Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Fox of Lake Park Drive. Jim will sail Tuesday on the "Arosa Kulu" from Montreal and spend the summer abroad before returning to enter medical school in the fall.

Dr. and Mrs. Fox recently returned from a trip which took them to the west coast.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

THE SEMI-TROPICAL GARDENS of the Costa Harbour hotel, Tucker's Town, Bermuda, is the background for this vacation photo of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gould of Henrietta avenue.
