Obituary Notices

FLOYD R. WILSON, 52, of Detroit, twin brother of Frederick A. Wilson, Lathrup Township, died May 16 in Grace hospital, Detroit.

Born in Valley Junction, Ia., on Dec. 2, 1898, he had been a Detroit resident for 34 years and was a manufacturer's agent.

He was a member of the Detroit chapter 1, D.A.V. BPOE lodge 24 and Union Lodge of Strict Observance No. 3, F. & A. M.

Besides his brother, his only other survivors is his son.

Services were held Monday at the Bell Chapel, William R. Hamilton company, with the Rev. John R. Rose of the Townsite Community church officiating. Ritualistic services were conducted at the grave in Acacia Park cemetery by his Masonic lodge.

RICHARD G. ENGLISH, 76, of Dunston road, Bloomfield Hills, died at his residence on May 17. Born Jan. 11, 1876 in Erie, Pa., Mr. English had been a resident of the Detroit area since 1909. He attended Allegheny college and Cornell university and was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Other affiliations include the Masonic Blue Lodge, Revere club and Christ Church Cranbrook.

Mr. English was chairman of the board of English and Miller Machine company of Detroit and chairman of the Ordinance Machine Tool advisory panel, US Army Ordnance.

He is survived by his widow, Mary C., and one daughter, Mrs. Frederick L. Robinson.

Services were held from Christ Church Cranbrook Monday afternoon in charge of Bell Chapel, William R. Hamilton company, with cremation at White Chapel cemetery. The Rev. Robert DeWitt officiated.

MRS. MYRTLE H. SLUSSER, 72, died May 18 at the Detroit Osteopathic hospital following a long illness.

Born near Lima, Mrs. Slusser attended the Teachers college at Ada, Ohio, and prior to her marriage taught public schools in the vicinity of Lima.

A resident of Birmingham since 1915, Mrs. Slusser was active in several clubs, including the fine arts department of the Birmingham Women's club, Birmingham Musicale, Cora Simpson group of the First Methodist church and the Birmingham MOMS club.

She is survived by her husband, Lester J. Slusser and a son, Robert L. Slusser, both of Birmingham; a daughter, Mrs. Charles V. Teetzel of Dundas, Ont., and a sister, Mrs. J. E. McCleary of San Jose, Calif. Five grandchildren also survive.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon from Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton company with burial in Acacia Park cemetery. The Rev. Dr. Arnold F. Bunt of the First Methodist church officiated.

MISS MARGARET PETERSON, 80, sister of John D. Peterson, 339 Baldwin, died May 5 at Dover, Del.

Born at Guelph, Ont., on Oct. 22, 1871, she studied music there, completing her training in a private school at Toronto. Miss Peterson had often visited her brother in Birmingham.

Burial was made in the cemetery near Dover.

John D. Peterson, her only survivor, is the last surviving member of the family.

MRS. ELIZABETH BELLMAN HUNT, 75, died Thursday night at the home of her son, Ralph E. Hunt, 391 Cranbrook road, following a brief illness.

Born in Dayton, Ohio, on Aug. 16, 1876, she was married there to Horace W. Hunt on Oct. 18, 1905. Mr. Hunt died several years ago.

A resident of Birmingham for four years, Mrs. Hunt was a member of the Oak Street United Brethren and the Spanish American War Veterans Auxiliary in Dayton.

Besides her son she is survived by three sisters and brothers, Samuel Zink and Mrs. Charles Compton, Harley Hunt, Harry Hunt and Lester Hunt, all of Dayton, and Earley Hunt of California.

The body was taken from the Manley Bailey funeral home Friday night to Dayton where services were held Sunday from the Roberts funeral home. Burial was in David cemetery.

MRS. HARTGET BORGMAN, 43, of 571 Henrietta, died Sunday at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac, after a long illness.

The former Christine Dussel, she was born in Webster, Mass., on Oct. 1, 1908, and came to Birmingham five years ago from Ann Arbor. She was a graduate of Worcester State Teachers college and received her master's degree from the University of Algiers in Africa. She was a member of Holy Name parish in Birmingham.

Mrs. Borgman is survived by her husband, to whom she was married on Feb. 15, 1941 in Ann Arbor; a daughter Ann Julie and son Gregory, all of Birmingham; her father, Frank Dussel of Worcester; a sister, Mrs. James Scott of New Haven, Conn., and two brothers, Bernard of Fort Lee, N. Y., and Earl of Marlboro, Mass.

Rosary services were held at the Manley Bailey funeral home Monday evening after which the body was taken to Worcester for services and burial.

MRS. BERTHA WHIPPLE WHITE, 83, a former resident of Birmingham, died Tuesday evening at her home, 21 Monroe street, Pontiac.

Born in Grand Rapids on Apr. 18, 1869, she lived in this community for 23 years, moving to Pontiac two months ago. She was a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, here. She was the widow of Willie A. White to whom she was married on Aug. 11, 1895.

Her only survivor is a daughter, Miss Orma Z. White of Cranbrook.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Manley Bailey funeral home. Reader William H. Schmeizer officiated.

Hills Crash Injures Four

Archie Addison, age 51, of 404 Park, faces a court trial on charges of driving under the influence of liquor after a collision in which the car he was driving injured four people Thursday night, May 15, on Woodward north of Long Lake road in Bloomfield Hills.

Both he and Ronnie Shaw, age 20, of 351 Main, Clawson, driver of the second car involved, escaped injury.

James Addison, age 12, suffered fractured ribs and his mother, Ruth Addison, age 38, sustained bruises of the right side. They were passengers in Addison's car.

EDWARD POWELL, Jr. age 18, 1958 Muir, suffered lacerations teeth and Ronnie J. LeBlanc, age 18, 3823 Rochester, Royal Oak, suffered a sprained ankle and bruises. They both were riding with Shaw.

The injured were treated at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Pontiac. Addison was arraigned Friday and pleaded innocent to the charge. He was released on $100 bond pending court trial May 28 before Bloomfield Hills Justice A. J. Richardson.

Ask Improvement

Frank D. Stanley, John J. Keenan, Bruce W. Jacobson and John E. Webster have petitioned Birmingham city commissioners for improvement of Southlawn from Bates to Henrietta. The matter has been referred to City Manager Donald C. Egbert for study.
