Ferndale Outlasts Birmingham, 6-4

By RON BARBER

In a wild 6-4 baseball game last Wednesday Birmingham was defeated at Ferndale.

Although the Maples put up a spirited fight getting seven hits and four runs, the loss could be walked to wildness of pitchers Tom Tracy and Tom Stinson, who walked 14 batters in six innings. Ferndale got only one hit.

The Raisplitter collected four runs off Tracy in the first and third innings, all on walks and errors, which brought in Stinson to relieve.

With one run already credited in the third, the Maples mustered over two more runs in the fourth on Mike Grove's single and two Ferndale errors. Still fighting, the Maples scored one more in the fifth, tying up the game.

Three walks by Stinson and a long fly scored the Raisplitter's winning margin.
