

To derive good things from and in this life it is to be armed with the best guarantee of receiving it. For the very word "deserve" means "to earn by service," "to be worthy of, to merit," etc. Therefore, to derive is the best guarantee to gain something.

Siosis Alums Form Chapter

The newly-formed Birmingham alumnae chapter of Collegiate Siosis held their first meeting Wednesday evening, May 14, in the Stanley street home of Mrs. Fredrick Matthaei, Jr., the group's first president.

Mrs. Matthaei will be aided by Mrs. Thomas Kuzma, vice-president; and Mrs. Hugh Mack, Jr., treasurer. Mrs. George A. Jones was named recording secretary, and Mrs. William Ramsey appointed to the corresponding secretary's post.

REPRESENTING Collegiate Siosis in Birmingham's Pan-Hellenic association will be Mrs. Ari M. Bécrole and Mrs. Allen Keogh. Mrs. James E. Burdett was placed in charge of publicity.

Collegiate Siosis alums who attended the inaugural meeting included Mrs. William R. Rudell, Mrs. Jay E. Hanna, Mrs. Donald Kottis, Mrs. Arthur Wilkinson, Mrs. Parsons Neff, Mrs. Harry Wasson and Mrs. Martin Archangel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Home From West Coast

Home from a six-month stay in La Jolla, Cal., are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Jackson, 911 Henrietta. While on the west coast, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson visited Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Mr. Jackson reports that they enjoyed La Jolla so much that they are building there and will return in the fall to make their permanent home there.

MRS. MARK JUNG

New Orleans Trip Follows Saturday Candlelight Vows

A New Orleans honeymoon followed the candlelight nuptials of Janet Elizabeth Frost and Mark Jung in Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening.

Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerrold A. Frost of Cranbrook road. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jung of Sheboygan, Wis.

TO REPEAT HER VOWS before the Rev. Robert De Witt, the bride chose a gown of white organdy appliqued with white bows and a French flower motif. A cathedral train, white bonnet and fingertip veil completed her costume. She carried a spray of white gardenias to the altar.

The bride's sister Judy was her maid of honor. She and bridesmaids Molly Sylvester, Nancy Hogan, Ada Jung, and Peggy Penn wore aqua shaded tulle gowns with matching hats, and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Miss Jung is the groom's sister.

MRS. FROST attended her daughter's nuptials and the reception which followed at Orchard Lake Country Club in navy blue and white, with a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Jung wore purple orchids on her turquoise-shaded gown. For her departure the bride changed to a blue and white suit accented by a red cloche hat.

A home in Sheboygan, Wis., awaits their return from their southern trip.

GUESTS WILL arrive at the Carron home from two o'clock until six. Among those who will preside at the tea tables are Mrs. George Moussette, Mrs. George Cavanaugh, Mrs. Hanley Dawson, Jr., Mrs. James K. Campbell, Mrs. Clyde Craine, Jr., Mrs. Fred Colombo and Mrs. Gerard Shulte.

Student Gives Recital At the U. of Michigan

ANN ARBOR—Leland Bartholomew, 2224 Yarmouth road, gave a public recital at the University of Michigan's Rackham Assembly Hall Tuesday afternoon.

His instrument was the French horn. Bartholomew was accompanied by a pianist and violinist. The recital was presented in lieu of a thesis as partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of master of music.

MURIEL HEBERT WOLF, soprano, and Anton Wolf, composer, will present a program of the Sunday afternoon musical sponsored by the Grosse Pointe alumnae chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota professional music fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph J. Weismiller will open their Lahser road home for the event which is scheduled for 4 p.m. Proceeds of the tea which will follow the performance will go to the Sigma Alpha Iota Foundation which provides scholarships and a loan fund for young American composers.

MRS. WILLIAM H. KUNI, JR.

William H. Kuni, Jr., Wed in Columbus, Ohio

White gladioli-ivy-trimmed tapers and ferns formed the backdrop for the nuptials of Barbara Louise Gurtler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gurtler, of Chester street, and William Henry Kuni, Jr.

The groom is the son of William H. Kuni of Chester street and the late Mrs. Kuni.

The pair repeated their vows in the Myland Memorial Church of Columbus, Ohio. The Rev. C. W. Gossett officiated.

THE BRIDE wore a ballerina-length gown. Alencci lace made up the bodice, peter-pan collar and long, tapered sleeves. Her full tulle and satin skirt was accented with paniers of lace.

Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by a matching lace cap, outlined with tiers of tulle and lace, trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, copied with white orchid and lilies-of-the-valley.

MAID OF HONOR Janice Hess of Fowlerville, Michigan, wore a ballerina gown of azure blue embroidered organdy, and a white tulle headband appliqued with organdy flowers. Miss Hess, a sorority sister of the bride, carried a cascade arrangement of yellow carnations and blue daisies set in ivy.

Robert Jenkins of Ann Arbor attended the groom.

Mrs. Gurtler attended her daughter's nuptials in a dress of copper shantung, styled with rhinestone pins. The groom's aunt, Mrs. S. J. Orth, was attired in a pink linen dress. Both she and Mrs. Gurtler wore pale lavender orchid corsages.

AMONG THOSE attending the reception and dinner which followed at the Provincial House in Columbus were the groom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Orth; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kuni; and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Joy Jr., and their daughter Dawn.

On the newlyweds' departure for a southern wedding trip, the bride was wearing a navy blue tulle suit with navy and white accessories. A white orchid, was pinned to her lapel.

On their return, they will make their home in Detroit.

Forum Highlights Last PTA Meeting Of Quarton School

Questions raised by parents in the Quarton school area will be put to a panel of Quarton PTA members and Dwight B. Ireland at the PTA's final meeting Wednesday evening.

The forum will take place in the Quarton gym at 7:45 p.m. Chief topic to be considered by the panel and Dr. Ireland will be whether additional should be made to Quarton, or a new school be built south of Maple to ease the over-crowded school situation.

Panel members have met with Dr. Ireland, studied Dr. T. C. Holt's survey report, and have gathered opinions from other parents.

Another speaker will be Grant Heber, Quarton principal, who will explain the transfer of 37 sixth grade students to Baldwin Elementary School, because of greatly increased enrollment this year.

NEW OFFICERS will be installed during the brief business meeting after which Mrs. Martin Butek, PTA president, will present her annual report.

Incoming president, Mrs. Emory DeNador, has announced chairman for the next term. Mr. and Mrs. William Lerchen will head the program committee; Mrs. Earl Conway, hospitality; Mrs. Thomas Sothman, ways and means; and Mrs. Henry Jackson, publicity.

The membership committee will be under the direction of Mrs. William Zabriske; the library board under Mrs. Edward Bardgett; and health under Mrs. Ben Stone.

Mrs. Lynn Craig is room mother or chairman. Mrs. Jonathan Ball and Mrs. James Van Doren were named council members, and Mrs. Dylwig will head the Cub Scouts group. A few appointments remain to be made.

Auditions Fill Will-O-Way Roles Anyone stopping at the Will-O-Way Summer Playhouse on West Long Lake road last weekend was likely to have been handed a script, been told to read, and may end up treading the boards before the season is over. Auditions were held Saturday and Sunday for casting in the coming summer's dramatic productions. Bill Merzli, director, conducted the readings which were open to all interested in professional summer stock. Experience or training in theater was not required, although Will-O-Way is a nationally known professional summer playhouse. Those selected will be drawn upon for roles in the six plays to be presented in the 12-week season opening June 17.
